A. INFORMATION CONCERNING POSSIBLE REVOCATION OF CHARTER

The Wilmington Evening Journal on October 6, 1954, carried an article reflecting that the Attorney General of the State of Delaware, H. ALBERT YOUNG, had filed suit in the Court of Chancery at Dover, Delaware, to revoke the charter of the NAAWP for the alleged abuse and misuse of its powers and privileges. The article then indicated the Attorney General had issued subpoenas for the organization's financial books and other records. The article stated that BRYANT W. BOWLES, President of the organization, had been reported to say that if "Delaware lifts the franchise for our organization we will go into the other forty-seven states and if that fails we will take to the United States mails."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This article reflected that a hearing had been set for October 22, 1954, at which time the NAAWP leaders could appear and show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued restraining and enjoining the association from further use of its corporate powers. The Attorney General will file an affidavit in support of the complaint by October 14th, and the NAAWP has until October 20, 1954, to file a counterclaim. According to the article, the complaint of Attorney General YOUNG charged that the NAAWP "initiated and maintained a program to destroy the fundamental rights of the people of the State of Delaware as guaranteed them by the constitution of the State of Delaware and the United States." YOUNG's charge is based on the fact that the association has abused provisions of its charter which says the organization was established to "foster, protect and maintain all rights of citizens as guaranteed by the constitution of the United States". Instead of striving for these objectives the complaint charges the association as "conducting a campaign and enlisted membership into its organization designed:

"(a) To foment racial tension and hatred between the citizens of the state of Delaware.

"(b) To intimidate members of the Board of Trustees of the Milford Special School District and members of the board of Trustees of other special school districts and through the Board of Education throughout this state from performing their duties under the law.

"(c) To encourage, by means of mass hysteria, mob rule, boycott and dissemination of race prejudice, the closing of public schools in sympathy with its plan to deprive Negro children of the right to attend public school because of their race, color and ancestry.

"(d) To promote meetings calculated to disturb the peace and incite to riot.

"(e) To intimidate and threaten white parents from having their children attend school in furtherance of

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

BA 100-17756

"the boycott against the Milford High School.

"(f) To encourage white parents to violate the laws of the State of Delaware with regard to compulsory school attendance."

After listing these allegations, the attorney general's complaint continues:

"In furtherance of these unlawful acts and the corporation's program of hate, prejudice and mob rule, the defendant corporation, contrary to its avowed purpose contained in its charter to foster, protect and maintain all rights of citizens as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, initiated and maintained a program to destroy the fundamental rights of the citizens of the State of Delaware as guaranteed them by the Constitution of the State of Delaware and of the United States."

The complaint avers that the corporation abused and misused its corporate powers invested in it under the laws of Delaware, "and has become a moving party in a conspiracy to deprive citizens of their rights under the Constitution of the United States and to inspire and induce mass violation of the laws of the State of Delaware."

The Attorney General also asks that the Court of Chancery appoint a receiver or receivers to take charge of the estate, effects, business and affairs of the corporation. The court is requested to enjoin and restrain the defendants from interfering with the receiver "in taking possession of and administering the property and affairs of said defendant corporation."

"Philadelphia Inquirer", 10/2/54

The "Philadelphia Inquirer", Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 2, 1954, carried a news article headlined, "TENSION AND BITTERNESS REMAIN IN MILFORD AS SCHOOL PROBLEM IS SWEEPED UNDER RUG". The article states that Milford, Delaware, has tried for the last four weeks to work out a puzzle tossed to it by the United States Supreme Court, the problem being how to break an old tradition and admit Negro and white pupils to the same school.

According to the article, Milford after four weeks of trial and terror finally solved the puzzle by ordering the Negroes from the school. In reviewing the situation at Milford, the article stated that during this period there had been mass meetings in floodlighted fields and that angry crowds had gathered in the morning to jeer parents who brought their children to classes and finally the objectors organized, forming what was known as the Delaware Chapter of the NAACP.

According to the article, trouble spread beyond Milford, including other surrounding towns such as Millsboro, Ellendale, Gumboro and Lincoln, but that Milford remained the focal point.

EDWARD SIMS, Washington Correspondent for the Florence Morning News and other South Carolina newspapers, wrote a series of three articles regarding the NAAWP Incorporated from Washington, D. C. which appeared in the Florence Morning News July 16, 17 and 18, 1954. These articles referred to BRYANT W. BOWLES as Director of the organization.

In the article Mr. SIMS states NAAWP will be seven months old on July 14. He stated that its activities are directed by BRYANT BOWLES, 34 year old native of Tampa, Florida who is an ex-Marine Corps Sergeant and a veteran of World War II and the Korean War. According to SIMS' article BOWLES mentions he does not hate the negroes but says he only wants to maintain separation of the race and advance culture of the white race. According to SIMS' article, BOWLES has a Board of Directors and thousands backing him. His only office help at present, however, is his wife, who is Secretary-Treasurer. According to the article the Vice-President, name not listed, is currently being asked to resign for not complying with NAAWP principles. BOWLES refused to reveal the total membership, but claimed members in 48 states including ministers and law enforcement officers in several states. SIMS reported there is one chapter in Florence, South Carolina whose membership BOWLES estimated at approximately 300. SIMS reported the Florence unit is headed by G. L. IVEY, a Florence restaurant owner and stated that after the Supreme Court Decision IVEY promptly fired all negroes working for him and replaced them with white help. According to the SIMS article the National Organization was chartered December 14, 1953 by BOWLES in the State of Delaware.

SIMS in a separate article quotes the pledge members are asked to take, and the stated objectives of the organization.

"I am a member of the white race, above the age of 21, and a citizen of the United States. I have never, nor do I intend to ever become a member of any organization that advocates overthrowing the Government of the United States through violence.

"It is understood and agreed that after becoming a member of this organization I reserve the right to vote as I please, worship as I please, or live as I please. But I do believe in separation of the races".

"In the top right hand corner of the application blank is a box to designate the amount of membership fees being paid, the donations, and payment for a subscription to National Forum, the newspaper the association plans to begin publishing next month.

"In a pamphlet the NAAWP describes its aims and purposes as: "(1) TO ORGANIZE all those white people who wish to carry on and further develop the essential and permanent characteristics of our CULTURE as previously developed and handed down by our forbears.

"(2) TO HELP educate our people through a program of lectures, books, pamphlets, papers, etc., in the true value of their CULTURE, that in their political, economic, religious, social, moral, scientific, recreational, etc. institutions and to point out the good which it (the NAAWP) will promote, and the bad which it will stamp out, and the mistakes which it will correct.

"(3) AND TO SECURE the necessary legislation to effect the program of advancing and strengthening the CULTURE of the white people.

"It further states: 'Today we are confronted with a movement to integrate the White and Negro races. The NAAWP-after sane consideration and rational appraisal of facts - believes racial integration can only result in the ultimate destruction of both the White and Negro races. Therefore, as its first important task, the NAAWP opposes the movement to integration.'

"The pamphlet pledges it is not motivated by prejudice, bigotry, hatred, nor are its policies un-American, un-Democratic, or un-Christian. Its actions are to be governed by the Golden Rule: 'Do Unto Others As You Would Have Them Do Unto You'."

SIMS reported on July 18, 1954, the NAAWP's major purpose now is build up a pilot model against integration of the races in Maryland's Public Schools to rival President EISENHOWER's Pilot Model in the District of Columbia for integration.

I. NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY RECEIVED BY NAAWP

The subject organization and its president, BRYANT W. BOWLES, JR., have received considerable publicity in local newspapers during the months of October, November and December, 1954. A chronology of events as gathered from local newspapers follows:

October 1, 1954 - Tampa, Florida

The "Tampa Tribune", a daily publication published at Tampa, Florida, on October 1, 1954, carried an article entitled "Florida Native Whose Parents Live Near Tampa Leads Delaware Segregation Drive." The article gave background information indicating that BRYANT W. BOWLES, JR., was currently leading the anti-integration drive in Delaware. It pointed out that on his last trip to Florida in July of 1954, he made several speeches in Lake County, according to his mother, Mrs. B. W. BOWLES. It stated that enrollment in the National Association for the Advancement of White People has been a regular item of business at many of the South Delaware meetings where BOWLES had spoken. It also reflected that circulars distributed by the organization at such meetings reflected four types of membership and the required dues as follows:

1 year	$ 5.00
3 years	12.00
Silver card	25.00
Gold card	50.00

This article quoted Delaware police as identifying BOWLES as WILLIAM BRYANT BOWLES, 34, of 5700 10th Road,

MM 105-526

North Arlington, Virginia, as president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People. This article further pointed out that BOWLES was arrested by the Baltimore City police on May 12, 1953, on five charges of false pretense which were disposed of with a fine of $25.00 and costs on each charge. The article stated that at that time BOWLES was wanted in Tampa, Florida, in connection with bogus checks. However, authorities at Tampa later advised Baltimore that restitution had been made in their cases and that he was no longer wanted by the Tampa authorities. The article pointed out that warrants were on file for BOWLES at the Sheriff's Office of Bel Air, Maryland, on two counts but that after BOWLES was turned over to the Maryland authorities on April 1, 1954, the charges were nol-prossed by the State Attorney's Office.

The article also stated that BOWLES claimed to have a contact with PARIS COX KIRBY, a Lincoln, Delaware farmer whom BOWLES described as liaison man between Governor J. CALLEB BOGGS and himself. This was subsequently denied, according to this article, by Governor BOGGS, who stated that no one was authorized to speak for him.

The article reflected that BOWLES estimated that the NAAWP had collected approximately $3,500.00 in membership at a $5.00 minimum from area residents (referenced area possibly refers to Delaware). The article further quoted BOWLES as stating that before he organized the NAAWP he was running a contracting business from Alexandria, Virginia, but that this was his full time occupation now.

October 11, 1954 - Miami, Florida

The "Miami Herald", a daily publication published at Miami, Florida, on October 11, 1954, published an editorial captioned "Tampan Accepts Credit for Riots." This article stated that looking behind the disturbances occurring at Milford, Delaware, Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Maryland, following the decision ending segregation in the public schools, that the police authorities found in each case that the disturbances followed meetings organized by a group called the National Association for the Advancement of White People. The editorial identified BRYANT W. BOWLES, a thirty-three year-old ex-Marine, native of Tampa, Florida, as the organizer of the NAAWP, who financed his early efforts by selling his own automobile and was quick to claim credit for the rioting. The article stated that BOWLES originally sold memberships in this organization for $5.00 but later reduced this to $2.00. It pointed out that agents are active in Florida, particularly in the middle tier of counties, where the NAAWP claims hundreds of members. The article identified one self-admitted member as Sheriff WILLIS MC CALL of Eustis, Florida, who was described as the law officer who shot two handcuffed Negro prisoners who had been arrested in the Groveland rape case in 1949. The article explained that MC CALL went to Milford, Delaware, under sponsorship of the NAAWP and addressed a rally in suburban Lincoln, Delaware. According to this article, BOWLES introduced MC CALL at this rally as "a famous man who knows how to handle Negroes." It further pointed out that after disorders flared over desegregation, BOWLES went on television in Washington, D. C., claiming credit and stating that he was extending his campaign to Philadelphia. The article also quoted BOWLES as saying that his goal was 10,000,000 members. The article further identified the "National Forum" which appeared first in mid-August, 1954, as the publication of the NAAWP. It stated that material appearing in the "National Forum" was largely lifted from material published by the "American Nationalist" edited by FRANK L. BRITTON at Inglewood, California. The article described the "American Nationalist" as a notorious hate sheet attacking Jews, Negroes and other minority groups with equal ferocity.

The article also pointed out that Klan leaders had also become active in campaigns sponsored by BOWLES.

October 13, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Sentinel", a daily publication published at Orlando, Florida, carried a news item on October 13, 1954, captioned "NAACP Asks JOHNS To Fire Lake Sheriff." This article reflected that the Florida Headquarters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Tampa, Florida, on October 12, 1954, requested Governor CHARLEY JOHNS to remove Lake County Sheriff WILLIS V. MC CALL for remarks reportedly made by MC CALL at a Delaware meeting protesting segregation. The article quoted MC CALL as retorting that they had no grounds for such a request as he had not violated any law but had only exercised his privilege under the type of free Americanism in which he was brought up.

MM 105-526

November 12, 1954 - Jacksonville, Florida

On November 12, 1954, the "Jacksonville Journal", a daily publication published at Jacksonville, Florida, carried an article captioned "Leaders of NAAWP to Speak Here". This article announced that BRYANT W. BOWLES would speak to a Jacksonville audience at 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday (November 16, 1954) at the Arena, 625 Main Street. The article stated that the purpose was to "explain segregation in Delaware and help the local chapter (NAAWP) on membership."

The "Jacksonville Journal" under date of November 16, 1954, carried a three-column, six inch ad announcing instant meeting to hear BRYANT BOWLES in person representing the NAAWP, Inc., tell about "segregation in Delaware and the South."

November 16, 1954 - Tavares, Florida

On November 16, 1954, the "Orlando Sentinel" carried a news item captioned "NAAWP Calls Lake Meeting." This item reflected that a mass meeting of the voters of the Fifth Congressional District has been called at the Courthouse Square at 7:30 P.M., November 17, 1954, to hear BRYANT BOWLES talk on "threat of desegregation." It stated that BOWLES arrived in Florida during the weekend and has been staying in Tampa, his former home. The article quoted Lake County Sheriff WILLIS MC CALL as having been interested in the NAAWP since last summer and stated that he wants this organization in Florida "to be strong enough to elect U. S. citizens and representatives who will see the white man's side of this segregation picture."

November 17, 1954 - Jacksonville, Florida

The "Jacksonville Journal" on November 17, 1954, carried a news item captioned "BOWLES' Talk Heard By 220." This news item reflected that BRYANT W. BOWLES, head of the NAAWP, addressed an audience of 220 people on November 16, 1954, at the Jacksonville Arena. The article described the audience as an enthusiastic crowd that clapped vigorously when BOWLES spoke in derogation of (1) the J. Edgar Hoover; (2) Supreme Court of the United States; (3) Justice FELIX FRANKFURTER, whom he stated came over here as a tool of the Communist Party; (4) Chief Justice EARL WARREN, whom he identified as the race-mixer from California; (5) the Governor of Maryland, whom he described as unscrupulous as ELEANOR ROOSEVELT.

The article stated the crowd also applauded when he spoke approvingly of (1) Sheriff WILLIS MC CALL; (2) JIMMY BYRNES of South Carolina; (3) MARVIN STRICKLAND of Georgia; (4) MARVIN STRICKLAND, president of the local Second Congressional District Chapter of NAAWP, and (5) his own activities in Delaware.

This article reflected also that following BOWLES' talk, STRICKLAND introduced EDGAR W. WAYBRIGHT, Chairman of the Duval County Democratic Executive Committee as "a man who has been in this fight for many long years." At the conclusion of a question and answer period, the article reflected that new members were signed up to the District Chapter of the organization and that BOWLES promised for their $5.00 they would get "Five dollars worth of the best segregation fight you ever saw."

November 18, 1954 - Miami, Florida

The "Miami Herald" of November 18, 1954, carried a news item captioned "BRYANT BOWLES Shifts Attack From

MM 105-526

"Negroes to Jews and IKE." This item was over the dateline of Jacksonville, and referred to the meeting held in Jacksonville. It quoted BOWLES as stating at this meeting that he was not fighting the Jews but they were fighting him and also, that the NAACP is not a Negro organization but that the bosses are Jews. The article also stated that BOWLES in his talk criticized President EISENHOWER, Vice President RICHARD NIXON, the U. S. Supreme Court, Anti-Defamation League, and B'nai B'rith, Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL and Jacksonville Mayor HAYDON BURNS. This article also reflected that a chapter of the NAAWP would be formed in Lake County, Florida, and would be turned over to WILLIS V. MC CALL.

November 18, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Sentinel" on November 18, 1954, carried a news item captioned "BOWLES Sees Florida Test By NAACP." This article was over the dateline of Tavares, Florida, and referred to a public meeting held by the NAAWP at Tavares on the night of November 17, 1954. During the course of the meeting BRYANT, who was the main speaker, stated that Florida had been picked by the NAACP as the next testing ground for integration. The article reflected that there were approximately 300 persons attending the meeting and that BOWLES, head of the NAAWP, was there at the invitation of Lake County Sheriff WILLIS V. MC CALL to assist in organizing the Fifth Florida District Chapter of this organization. The article reflected that BOWLES presented a charter to three men who were introduced as directors of the new unit. These men were identified as L. A. BAKER, Sanford, an employee of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad, JOHN M. HUGHEY, an Orlando fertilizer salesman, and CARL AVERITT, a fruit buyer and former Lake County Deputy Sheriff. The article reflected that BOWLES' talk was similar to the one previously given at Jacksonville, Florida.

The November 19 edition of the "Orlando Sentinel" carried a photograph of BRYANT BOWLES addressing the audience at Tavares on November 17. This picture also included CARL AVERITT and Lake County Sheriff WILLIS V. MC CALL.

MM 105-526

November 19, 1954 - Tampa, Florida

The "Tampa Tribune" on November 19, 1954, carried a news item captioned "Integration Foe Says His NAAWP Is Against Violence." This article, over the dateline of Tavares, quoted BOWLES as telling some 400 people in attendance at the public meeting at Tavares on November 17, 1954, that his organization was against violence and any chapter which resorted to violence "will have to be dissolved." It also stated that many of the ones in attendance signed petitions "demanding" segregation be continued in public schools. It also reflected that a number of people paid $5.00 initiation fee to join the organization and many expressed enthusiastic approval of BOWLES' remarks. In addition to the news item, there were three photographs published of activities of this meeting showing BOWLES as the speaker and also one showing MALCOLM ~~MC~~ CALL, identified as the son of Sheriff MC CALL, taking registrations for membership in the NAAWP.

December 4, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The December 4, 1954, edition of the "Orlando Evening Star", a daily publication published at Orlando, Florida, carried a news item captioned "West Orange Rally On, BOWLES Vows", with the sub-caption, "NAAWP Denied Use of Tracks." This article quoted BOWLES as saying that he intended to talk in Winter Garden, Florida, on the night of December 4 "at the Plant and Main Street corner right where we said we'd be." The article stated that a proposed BOWLES rally which was scheduled in Orlando for the preceding night was blocked because of failure to obtain permission for the use of Eola Park. The article also quoted Winter Garden City Attorney J. B. ~~ROGERS~~ as saying that there was nothing in the city code requiring a permit for public assemblies if they are conducted in an orderly manner. The article also stated that A. L. COLLINS, official of the Atlantic Coastline, owner of the property at Plant and Main Street, stated that the railroad would not permit the use of its property for a rally. It also quoted Mayor C. B. BOURLAND as saying that the city could not permit any rally which would tie up traffic.

December 5, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Sentinel" of December 5, 1954, carried a news item captioned "Sparse Crowd Hears BOWLES Make Winter Garden Speech." This article, over dateline of Winter Garden, Florida, stated that BOWLES carried out his promise to speak in Winter Garden and that 200 people huddled around the Plant Street taxi station to hear him denounce assorted races, persons and institutions. The article reflected that BOWLES' speech, which lasted for an hour and a half, attacked Negroes, Jews, certain ministers, President EISENHOWER, Florida Attorney General RICHARD ERVIN, the "Orlando Sentinel and Star", the U. S. Supreme Court, public school integration and white trash. The article also stated that the Fifth District Chapter of the NAAWP included membership from eleven Central Florida counties. The article also reflected that the rally was originally scheduled at the Main and Plant Street intersections but as most of the property in that area belongs to the Atlantic Coastline Railway, the NAAWP apparently decided against using this or city property and scheduled the meeting on private property at the taxi stand.

December 6, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Evening Star" on December 6, 1954, carried a news item captioned "BOWLES Rally Plans Vague." This article reflected that BOWLES had been denied a permit by the city of Orlando to speak at Eola Park the previous week but that he, BOWLES, contended that he had had several offers from private property to conduct a rally but stated that he was leaving the plans for the rally up to the local chapter which will announce such plans after they are completed.

MM 105-526

December 7, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Sentinel" of December 7, 1954, carried a news item entitled "BOWLES To Seek Council OK For NAAWP Rally At Eola." This article quoted BOWLES as stating that he would request permission for a rally to be held at Eola Park by the NAAWP and that if the city council refuses the organization would probably accept an offer of private property to hold such a rally.

December 8, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

On December 8, the "Orlando Sentinel" carried a news item captioned "NAAWP Still Mmm On Meeting." This article stated that neither BOWLES nor any of his representatives from the NAAWP appeared at the city council meeting of Orlando to request a permit to conduct a rally at Eola Park.

December 14, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The December 14 edition of the "Orlando Sentinel" carried a news item captioned "NAAWP's Rally Nixed At Sanford." This article, over dateline of Sanford, Florida, stated that the city commission, on December 13, 1954, denied the NAAWP permission to use a downtown street corner for a race rally for Friday night. The article quoted LYMAN BAKER, JR., Sanford railroad trainman and Fifth District President of the NAAWP, as stating to the council, "I take it you have denied us freedom of speech." According to the article, he was answered by Commissioner WILLIAM STEMPER as follows: "We haven't denied you the right to speak, just the right to use city property."

December 16, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

The "Orlando Sentinel" of December 16 carried a news item captioned "Technicality Saves BOWLES." This item, over a Dover, Delaware dateline, reflected that two warrants charging BOWLES with urging violation of Delaware's public school attendance laws were dismissed on technical grounds on December 15, 1954. The article stated that BOWLES remained at liberty under a $3,000.00 bond which he posted shortly after the initial filing of charges during the furor of assignment of a group of Negro tenth grade pupils to the formerly all-white high school at Milford.

MM 105-526

December 29, 1954 - Orlando, Florida

On December 29, 1954, the "Orlando Sentinel" carried a news item captioned "BOWLES Draws Sparse Crowd in Wildwood." This item, under a Wildwood dateline, stated that a sparse crowd of about 100 people attended a rally the preceding night, December 28, 1954, in which BOWLES lashed out at the church, Communism, "Negroism", and the "Orlando Sentinel".

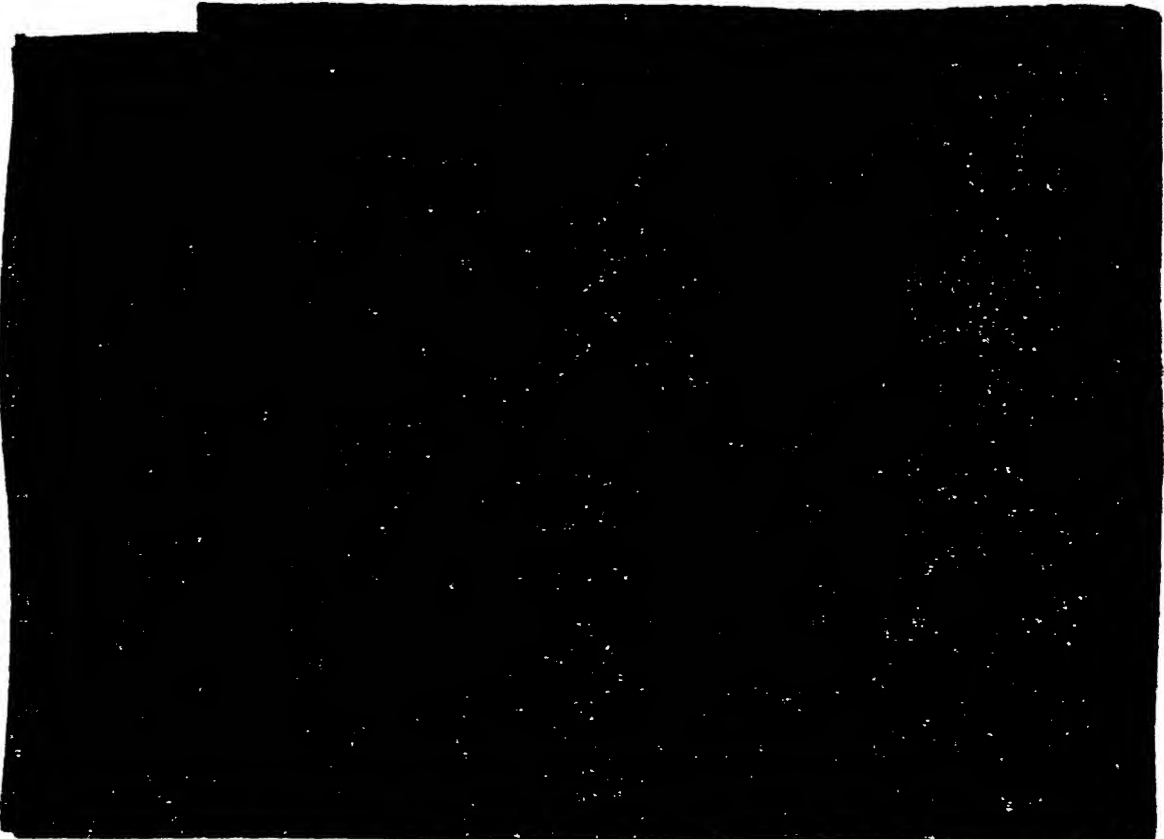

This article stated that BOWLES implied that the Orlando incident, in refusing to allow him to speak at Eola Park, resulted in an invitation for him to speak at Wildwood, Florida. The article also quoted E. R. ~~WARD~~, who introduced BOWLES, as stating, "We had expected a bigger crowd than is here tonight. We thought there were more people interested in the NAAWP." During the course of the talk by BOWLES, he claimed that the northern Negro newspapers were giving "us" better coverage than some of the so-called white newspapers in the South. The article also stated that during the meeting an attractive brunette solicited memberships in the NAAWP but that an observer said that only a few persons came forward to join the organization.

II. PUBLIC MEETINGS HELD IN FLORIDA

During the months of November and December, 1954, the NAAWP held four public meetings at which the president, BRYANT W. BOWLES, was principal speaker as reflected by the above news items. During the same period this organization attempted to hold two additional public meetings with BOWLES as the speaker, one at Orlando on December 3 and the other at

MM 105-526

Sanford on December 14 and in both of the latter instances the city commissioners of the respective towns denied a permit. The public meetings that were held were located at Jacksonville on November 16, 1954, Tavares on November 17, 1954, Winter Garden on December 4, 1954, and Wildwood on December 28, 1954.

IV. INDIVIDUAL ACTIVITIES OF MEMBERS AND CHAPTERS OF THE NAAWP

A. BACKGROUND INFORMATION - BRYANT W. BOWLES, JR.

On October 1, 1954, the "Tampa Tribune" carried a news item captioned "Florida Native Whose Parents Live Near Tampa Leads Delaware Segregation Drive." This article reflected that BRYANT W. BOWLES, JR., age 34, an ex-Marine, was currently leading the anti-integration drive in Delaware and stated that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. BOWLES, reside in the Temple Terrace Junction within ten miles of Tampa, Florida. The article quoted Mrs. BOWLES as stating that her son was born in Alford in West Florida and attended school in Tampa and at Bartow, Florida. She stated that he has three sisters, two of whom live in Tampa, and a brother. This article also quoted the Delaware State Police as having made a statement identifying BOWLES as WILLIAM BRYANT BOWLES, 34, of 57 Tenth Road, North Arlington, Virginia, where he resided with his wife, the former E. LOIS WILLIFORD. This article identified BOWLES as president of the NAAWP and his wife as secretary and treasurer. This statement also reflected that the Delaware State Police had conducted investigation of BOWLES due to his activities in the State of Delaware and that it reflected the following information:

He was arrested by the Baltimore city police on May 12, 1953, on five charges of false pretense. Disposition of these cases indicates that he was fined $25.00 and costs on each charge. It stated that at the time of his arrest in the city of Baltimore he was wanted in Tampa, Florida, in connection with bogus checks. Authorities at Tampa later advised Baltimore that restitution had been made in their cases and that BOWLES was no longer wanted there. Warrants were also filed in the Sheriff's Office at Bel Air, Maryland, on two counts. BOWLES was turned over to the Sheriff of Harford County, Maryland, on April 1, 1954, and the charges were nol-prossed by the State Attorney's Office. At the time of his difficulty in Baltimore, Mr. BOWLES was an officer and part owner of the Bryant Roofing Company and is alleged to have paid wages to some employees of the firm with bad checks.

This article also quoted BOWLES as stating that he was raised on a farm in Florida and went to the city when he was fifteen. It described him as a wiry, medium height man who married a girl from Texas and stated that he entered the Marine Corps in 1939 and served for seven and one-half years in World War II and in Korea. The article quoted BOWLES as stating that he put $6,000.00 of his own money into organizing the NAAWP and so far has not taken back a dime. It also quoted BOWLES as stating that the operation of the NAAWP was now "his full time job."

On October 11, 1954, the "Miami Herald" published an article over the byline of BERT COLLIER captioned "Tampam

MM 105-526

"Accepts Credit for Riots." This article identified BOWLES as a 33 year-old ex-Marine, native of Tampa. It also reflected that he enlisted in the Marines at the age of 19 and after serving for seven and one-half years in the Armed Services, entered the contracting business.

A news item appearing in the "Jacksonville Journal" of November 12, 1954, captioned "Leader of NAAWP To Speak Here" also identified MARVIN STRICKLAND as the local president of the Florida Second District Chapter of the NAAWP. The article quoted STRICKLAND as stating that he was elected president of the NAAWP group on Wednesday but that he did not organize the chapter. It reported him as saying that after looking into it he decided that it was equipped to do a lot of good. He stated that there had been quite a few meetings already held but at the present time was not very big, having a membership of about sixty members. The article also stated that STRICKLAND objected to the "white supremacy" tag on his organization and quoted him as saying, "I see no indications that the NAAWP is for white supremacy. No hate, no violence -- just segregation until Hell freezes over."

A news item appearing on November 18, 1954, published by the "Orlando Sentinel" reflected that BOWLES was invited to Tavares to make a public speech in regard to the NAAWP by Lake County Sheriff WILLIS V. MC CALL. He pointed out that BOWLES made this speech to assist Sheriff MC CALL in organizing the Fifth Florida District Chapter of the NAAWP. This article stated that a charter for the Fifth District NAAWP was presented to three men who were introduced as directors of the new unit. They identified these three directors as L. A. BAKER, Sanford, Florida, an employee of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad, JOHN M. HUGHEY, an Orlando fertilizer salesman, and CARL AVERITT, a fruit buyer and former Lake County Deputy Sheriff.

The Washington "Evening Star", a local newspaper, carried an article in its edition January 13, 1955, which was captioned, "BRYANT BOWLES Moves to Milford to Lead Drive". The article points out that BOWLES, at Milford, Delaware, stated that he had moved his residence there from Alexandria, Virginia, and that he moved to Milford to "spearhead a drive to prevent further integration in Delaware schools."

[REDACTED]

"The Washington Post and Times Herald", a local newspaper, carried an article on December 17, 1954, entitled, "BRYANT BOWLES Quits Offices Downtown". The article pointed out that BOWLES had vacated offices at 1319 F Street at the request of the management of the building. It was set forth in the article that BOWLES was moving the NAAWP headquarters to Delaware.

C. LEGAL ACTIONS AGAINST BOWLES AND THE NAAWP

The records of the United States Municipal Court, Washington, D. C., Criminal Docket Number US 5920-54

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WFO 100-26356

United States, District of Columbia, versus BRYANT BOWLES reflects that on November 1, 1954, BOWLES entered a not guilty plea to an assault charge and demanded a jury trial. His bond was set at $300.00. A trial was set for January 5, 1955, and it was continued on January 5, January 10, and January 26, 1955, and it is presently being continued to March 29, 1955, due to the fact that BOWLES' wife, a principal witness, is confined in a hospital until the birth of a child about the middle of March, 1955.

D.C.
The "Washington Evening Star" on October 27, 1954, carried an item captioned, "Postman to Request Warrant for BOWLES on Assault Charge". The article recounted that Postman ROSCOE VERNON COOPER accused BOWLES of assault upon his person in the lobby of 1319 F Street, N.W. The article set forth that the assault occurred due to an argument over the handling of mail for the NAAWP.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald" on October 29, 1954, carried an article captioned, "BOWLES Swears Warrant Against Mailman COOPER". This article pointed out that BOWLES accused COOPER of disorderly conduct in that he used profane language in a public place.

The "Daily Worker", an East-coast Communist newspaper, on October 14, 1954, carried an article captioned, "Delaware Court Told of Milford 'Mob Rule'". This article recounted the efforts of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Attorney General of Delaware, H. ALBERT YOUNG, to have negro children readmitted to Milford, Delaware, schools. The article pointed out that BRYANT W. BOWLES, founder of the NAAWP, boycotted the hearing because "it looked like an inter-racial meeting."

IN D.C. FILE
The "Daily Worker" on October 28, 1954, published an article entitled, "Charge BOWLES Withholds the Withholding Tax". The article pointed out that W. BRYANT BOWLES, NAAWP, had been given thirty days to remit about $2,000.00 in Federal withholding taxes which he was alleged to have deducted from the pay of employees but failed to hand over to the United States Government.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Washington "Evening Star" on November 9, 1954, set forth an article captioned, "Delaware Set Back in Bid to Suspend NAAWP Operations". This article points out that a preliminary injunction sought by the State of Delaware to suspend the operation of the NAAWP was denied by Vice Chancellor MARVEL. Mr. MARVEL said in his decision that granting a preliminary injunction would have the effect of pronouncing a "death sentence" on the organization without benefit of trial. Mr. MARVEL stated, however, that the State might prove its point at a later hearing and a permanent injunction could result. On these grounds he said he could not grant the injunction without a hearing.

D. NEWSPAPER ARTICLES CONCERNING THE NAAWP
AND BRYANT BOWLES

The "Pittsburgh Courier" on October 9, 1954, carried an article entitled, "Courier Exposes Vicious 'Minds' Behind Disorder". This article criticized BOWLES and the NAAWP on their activity in connection with the Milford school disorder.

The "National Guardian" in its issue of October 11, 1954, published an article entitled, "Race Hate Fomenters Fail to Stir Real School Trouble". This article criticized BOWLES and the NAAWP for their actions in connection with the Baltimore and Washington, D. C., school disturbances.

The "National Guardian" on October 11, 1954, also published an article entitled, "Florida Sheriff Who Killed Youth in Groveland Case Helps Fomenters of Race Hate in Delaware Schools". This article criticized WILLIS V. McCALL, Florida Sheriff, and BRYANT BOWLES, head of NAAWP, for their actions in the Delaware school disputes at Milford, Delaware.

FLA. MAR
The "Daily Worker" in its edition dated October 11, 1954, carried an article entitled, "Racists Boast of Plans to Expand School Strife". This article reported an interview with LOIS BOWLES and BRYANT BOWLES concerning their ideas on segregation. The article was generally critical of the attempts of the NAAWP to enforce segregation.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald" on November 18, 1954, published an article entitled, "BOWLES Turns Fire on Jews Among Others". The article is date lined at Jacksonville, Florida, and relates that BRYANT W. BOWLES of the NAAWP attacked Jewish people in a speech at Jacksonville, Florida, on November 16, 1954. The article pointed out that BOWLES also criticized President EISENHOWER, Vice President NIXON, the Supreme Court, especially Justices FRANKFURTER and WARREN, the Anti-Defamation League, B'nai B'rith, the Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL, and others.

[REDACTED]

The "National Forum"

The "National Forum", the official publication of the NAAWP, in its issue for November, 1954, contains only two main articles, one entitled, "NAAWP Upsets Political Clique in Delaware". This article was an attack on the Attorney General of the State of Delaware and his efforts to curb the subject organization. This article also contains attacks against "organized Jewry". The following statement is made toward the end of the article: "It is not surprising to find that a Jew is behind the drive to mix negroes and whites in Delaware schools since it is organized Jewry which is behind most of the pro-negro agitation throughout the rest of the country. As a point of fact, it is organized Jewry rather than the negroes who are pushing hardest on integration. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) which obtained the Supreme Court decision outlawing segregated schools is itself a Jewish-led organization. It was founded in 1909 by Jews and its current president is the Jew, ARTHUR SPINGARN, who has headed the NAACP since 1939. This being so, it is only to be expected that Delaware's State Attorney HYMAN YANOWITZ should cooperate to the hilt with the NAACP in jailing BRYANT BOWLES and in seeking a court order to cancel the admixture of negroes and white pupils."

The second article is one captioned, "UN Favors Race Integration for U.S. School Kids". It was set forth in the paper that this article is a reprint from the "American Nationalist". This article is an attack on the United Nations and its position of equality for all men.

Dear [REDACTED] b7C

Thank you for your letter April 19th.

You are entirely justified in your action - it is indeed regrettable that your consent was not given prior to the request of one of your co-workers that we furnish literature and membership card to several in your office. The literature and cards were sent to him for delivery to each listed by him.

We receive similar requests from numerous offices throughout the country, however, your complaint is the first of its kind we have experienced, and you demonstrate exactly what we believe - every citizen has his right to his own beliefs, and beliefs of others should not be imposed on those who believe otherwise, as long as those beliefs are justifiable.

Inasmuch as names are not entered on our records until we receive an application from them, you can rest assured that your name is not on our records - also, we never use any one's name except on written permission from that person.

I regret this unfortunate experience and fully assure you nothing will come of it as far as we are concerned. I am sure you will wish to return the membership card given to you.

Hon. J. Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Quite a number of people locally have received letters from Mr. D. W. Bowles, President of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, 1346 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington 6, D. C. This organization, it appears, wants to enlist members who are asked to send in $2.00 for their first year's dues. I have advised a number of friends that this thing might be a mere racket or for all we know might be inspired by communists, and that I would not send them anything.

If you are at liberty to do so, and could tell me something about this organization, it would be appreciated. It seems to me that it would be a sad day in this country when every racial group will assert itself through an organization along racial lines.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours, very sincerely, among people who were getting along in a natural pattern until the integration issue assumed outsize proportions.

An honest effort to return sane thinking to our discussion of race relations will be the avowed purpose of the National Association for Advancement of White People, to the end that the opinions and personal privileges of the millions of people, who have so far uttered not one word in the frenzied campaign for forced integration of the races, may be allowed an honest impetus in balancing the scales against the juggernaut which has so far ridden roughshod over simple logic and rational appraisal. We hold no brief for twisted reasoning, misplaced fanaticism or the incitement of unrest by misleading propaganda, such mouthings will be answered by incontrovertible facts whenever they appear in the future. Dictation of our thinking and personal associations is a long step toward complete sublimation of self, to the whims of those who would secure political power at the expense of the personal rights of citizens of all races.

We invite expressions of opinions from anyone to our office, Room 1007, Dupont Circle Building, 1346 Connecticut Avenue, Washington 6, D. C.

The National Association for Advancement of White People is a non-profit corporate organization, legally constituted under the corporation laws of the State of Delaware. The pattern of operation of this organization is crystal-clear, in that an honest attempt shall be made to re-establish the rightful status of the citizens of America, whose design for living teeters on the brink of disaster, the White citizens having been placed in this precarious position by the pressure exerted on every hand by those who insist on exploiting the Negro race. It is expedient that sensible material be prepared and published to bolster the interests of White people, before the maze of organizations intent on sublimating those interests, succeed in making it unpopular to be a member of the White race.

All citizens are guaranteed equal rights and privileges that suffer grievously, when thrown out of focus by pressure groups that many times allow mistaken zeal to cloud their view of natural human relations in a democracy.

It is now necessary that the National Association for Advancement of White People establish its position, so that the members of the White race may be represented in their natural desire to retain a reasonable semblance of their way of life. It is our purpose to state the position of the White race in handling this problem, inasmuch as the Negro is now represented by the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

Those with an axe to grind are loud in the presentation of their ideas, while most hard-working citizens do not take the time to publicly present their views. Most men are willing to live and let live, without attempting to impose their philosophy on a'l who might dare to disagree with them. Successful relations of different races will eventually result from gradually changing concepts of all those affected. Any attempt to artificially mature such a process must result in bitterness, since human nature has hastily been circumvented.

One of the most unrelenting propaganda campaigns in the history of civilization has now reached its zenith in a fanatical attempt to socialize the White and Negro races. For example, in the District of Columbia, at the present writing, the wave of persuasive prodding has been almost entirely designed to incite the members of the Negro race, as they are led by self-constituted experts to register hurt and resentment for fancied abuses that do not exist. Facts are ignored, as fast-talking breast-beaters skip hurriedly over the statistics that would prove their denouncement, while their facile tongues coin such catch-phrases as "second class citizenship", "minority race" and other cliches designed to stir up racial awareness

The NAAWP believes in the equal protection of the laws for all citizens, whether White or Negro, but does not understand by that, the White People do not have the right to associate with one another.

The NAAWP recognizes that the Negro, an American citizen, is entitled to these same rights, and it will always be ready to assist the Negro in his fight for these rights.

The NAAWP believes in the right to private property and of free enterprise.

The NAAWP believes in the Brotherhood of Man, but understands by that, one ought to help a fellow man in distress, not that one should deny the most fundamental principle of life, the struggle for existence.

The NAAWP is not motivated by prejudice, bigotry or hatred; nor are its policies Un-American, un-democratic, or Un-Christian.

The NAAWP will always endeavor to be just, decent and reasonable in all its actions.

The NAAWP is a law abiding association, recognizing the authority of and adhering to the Constitution; also, the Federal, State and local laws in their respective jurisdictions.

The NAAWP will always endeavor to be governed in its actions by the Golden Rule: "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU."

Man was conceived by the Creator—as were all things—in variety, which we know as race.

Man received from Him the instinct to exist and the means to perpetuate himself in his particular image, but the “Will” to exist was to depend upon the particular Man.

History discloses that Man’s “Will to Exist” has resulted in a highly competitive struggle among the various races for sustenance, land, wealth, freedom, etc., which we understand as the “struggle for existence.”

In this struggle for existence every race develops a way of life, or Culture. Culture, then, is essentially the means of racial existence.

In a competitive world the continual advancement and strengthening of their Culture is the only certain way a race may ensure their continued existence.

It is to this noble task of advancing and strengthening our Culture that the NAAWP is dedicated.

To this end the NAAWP proposes:

- (1) to organize all those white people who wish to carry on and further develop the essential and permanent characteristics of our Culture as previously developed and handed down by our forbears.
- (2) to help educate our people, through a program of lectures, books, pamphlets, papers, etc., in the true value of their Culture, that in their political, economic, religious, social, moral, scientific, recreational, etc., institutions, and to point out the Good, which it (the NAAWP) will promote, the Bad, which it will stamp out, and the mistakes, which it will correct, and

- (3) to secure the necessary legislation to effect the program of advancing and strengthening the Culture of the White People.

Today we are confronted with a movement to integrate the White and Negro races. The NAAWP—after sane consideration and rational appraisal of facts—believes racial integration can only result in the ultimate destruction of both the White and Negro races. Therefore, as its first important task, the NAAWP opposes the movement to integration.

Today people are concerned about their right to live among neighbors of their own choice; they are concerned about the security of the most important investment any family can ever make—the investment in a home; and they are concerned about the education and intimate associations of their children from birth to manhood or womanhood.

Therefore, the NAAWP will immediately seek to advance the White People by ensuring their right, in law, to associate with those of their own kind, if they so desire, either publicly or privately in any or all of the multitude of life’s activities. Racial separation is No Sin—Hatred Is.

The NAAWP is in the open where all men can see and form clear judgments. We strive for fair play; and because we want fair play in return, we wish not to be misquoted.

The NAAWP wants to do what is right and what is good. We are Americans. In order to defend our own rights, we will defend the rights of others. What we want for ourselves, we grant to others. We demand for ourselves no more than we believe belong of right to others. We will not settle for less.

profit corporated organization legally constituted under the corporation laws of the State of Delaware which maintains Executive Offices at 1319 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The Washington Evening Star, local newspaper, on February 18, 1954, in an article entitled "White People Need Advancing Says NAAMP" sets forth information that the corporation received its charter December 14 in the State of Delaware. This article reports an interview with BRYANT W. BOWLES in which he did not state what the actual membership of the corporation is at the present time but that he would announce it when it reached 50,000 members. The article related that BOWLES did comment that membership had been doubled since January, 1954, when its membership was 3,000.

Concerning branches of the organization, the newspaper article sets out that BOWLES stated that Memphis would be chapter headquarters for the Midsouth Area including Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas. BOWLES claimed that branch offices are to be opened up and that Chicago would perhaps be next.

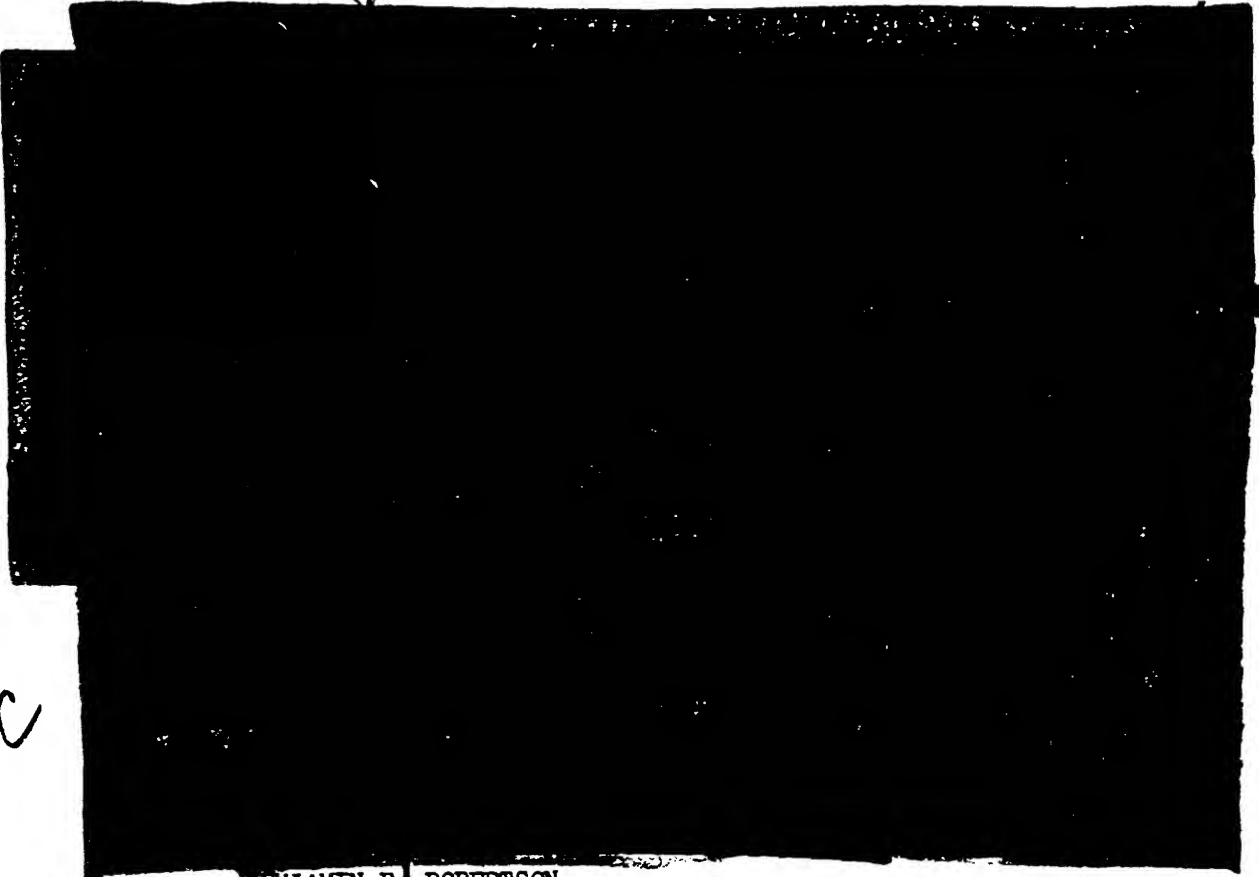

b2 [redacted] advised on June 21, 1954, that the activities, to date, of the organization have been to attempt to build up membership by means of mail solicitations. The informant advised that a publication is contemplated by the corporation called the "National Forum" but that it is being held up by the slowness of subscriptions. Informant advised that as soon as subscriptions are forthcoming the publication will be printed giving the "white" point of view on current events, principally dealing with racial integration. Informant also advised that two talks have been given by the President, BRYANT W. BOWLES, on radio station WPIK in Alexandria, Virginia, on June 6 and 13. Informant advised that another talk had been planned for June 20 but that difficulties had arisen with the radio station due to the radio station's fear of libel suits.

C. STATED AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

b2 [REDACTED] on May 24, furnished two brochures from the captioned organization entitled "Aims Purposes of National Association of Advancement for White People Inc." and "Why" also published by the corporation.

In the brochure entitled "Aims Purposes" the following is set forth:

"Man was conceived by the Creator-as were all things-in variety, which we know as race.

"Man received from Him the instinct to exist and the means to perpetuate himself in his particular image, but the 'Will' to exist was to depend upon the particular Man. History discloses that Man's 'Will' to Exist has resulted in a highly competitive struggle among the various races for sustenance, land, wealth, freedom, etc., which we understand as the 'struggle for existence.'"

"In this struggle for existence every race develops a way of life, or Culture. Culture, then, is essentially the means of racial existence.

"In a competitive world the continual advancement and strengthening of their Culture is the only certain way a race may ensure their continued existence.

"It is to this noble task of advancing and strengthening our Culture that the NAAWP is dedicated.

"To this end the NAAWP proposes:

- (1) to organize all those white people who wish to carry on and further develop the essential and permanent characteristics of our Culture as previously developed and handed down by our forbears.
- (2) to help educate our people, through a program of lectures, books, pamphlets, papers, etc., in the true value of their Culture, that in their political, economic, religious, social, moral, scientific, recreational, etc., institutions, and to point out the Good, which it (the NAAWP) will promote, the Bad, which it will stamp out, and the mistakes, which it will correct, and
- (3) to secure the necessary legislation to effect the program of advancing and strengthening the Culture of the White People,

"Today we are confronted with a movement to integrate the White and Negro races. The NAAWP-after sane consideration and rational appraisal of facts-believes racial integration can only result in the ultimate destruction of both the White and Negro races. Therefore, as its first important task, the NAAWP opposes the movement to integration.

"Today people are concerned about their right to live among neighbors of their own choice; they are concerned about the security of the most important investment any family can ever make-the investment in a home; and they are concerned about the education and intimate associations of their children from birth to manhood or womanhood.

"Therefore, the NAAWP will immediately seek to advance the White People by ensuring their right, in law, to associate with those of their own kind, if they so desire, either publicly or privately in any or all of the multitude of life's activities. Racial separation is No Sin-Hatred Is.

"The NAAWP is in the open where all men can see and form clear judgments. We strive for fair play; and because we want fair play in return, we wish not to be misquoted.

"The NAAWP wants to do what is right and what is good. We are Americans. In order to defend our own rights, we will defend the rights of others. What we want for ourselves, we grant to others. We demand for ourselves no more than we believe belong of right to others. We will not settle for less.

WFO 100-26356

"The NAAWP believes in the equal protection of the laws for all citizens, whether White or Negro, but does not understand by that, the White People do not have the right to associate with one another.

"The NAAWP recognizes that the Negro, an American citizen, is entitled to these same rights, and it will always be ready to assist the Negro in his fight for these rights.

"The NAAWP believes in the right to private property and of free enterprise.

"The NAAWP believes in the Brotherhood of Man, but understands by that, one ought to help a fellow man in distress, not that one should deny the most fundamental principle of life, the struggle for existence.

"The NAAWP is not motivated by prejudice, bigotry or hatred; nor are its policies Un-American, un-democratic, or Un-Christian.

"The NAAWP will always endeavor to be just, decent and reasonable in all its actions.

"The NAAWP is a law abiding association, recognizing the authority of and adhering to the Constitution; also, the Federal, State and local laws in their respective jurisdictions.

"The NAAWP will always endeavor to be governed in its actions by the Golden Rule: "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU."

In the brochure entitled "Why" the following is set forth:

"The National Association for Advancement of White People is a non-profit corporate organization, legally constituted under the corporation laws of the State of Delaware. The pattern of operation of this organization is crystal-clear, in that an honest attempt shall be made to re-establish the rightful status of the citizens of America, whose design for living teeters on the brink of disaster, the White citizens having been placed in this precarious position by the pressure exerted on every hand by those who insist on exploiting the Negro race. It is expedient that sensible material be prepared and published to bolster the interest of White people, before the maze of organizations intent on sublimating those interests, succeed in making it unpopular to be a member of the White race.

"All citizens are guaranteed equal rights and privileges that suffer grievously, when thrown out of focus by pressure groups that many times allow mistaken zeal to cloud their view of natural human relations in a democracy.

"It is now necessary that the National Association for Advancement of White People establish its position, so that the members of the White race may be represented in their natural desire to retain a reasonable semblance of their way of life. It is our purpose to state the position of the White race in handling this problem, inasmuch as the Negro is now represented by the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

"Those with an axe to grind are loud in the presentation of their ideas, while most hard-working citizens do not take the time to publicly present their views. Most men are willing to live and let live, without attempting to impose their philosophy on all who might dare to disagree with them. Successful relations of different races will eventually result from gradually changing concepts of all those affected. Any attempt to artificially mature such a process must result in bitterness, since human nature has hastily been circumvented.

"One of the most unrelenting propaganda campaigns in the history of civilization has now reached its zenith in a fanatical attempt to socialize the White and Negro races. For example, in the District of Columbia, at the present writing, the wave of persuasive prodding has been almost entirely designed to incite the members of the Negro race, as they are led by self-constituted experts to register hurt and resentment for fancied abuses that do not exist. Facts are ignored, as fast talking breast-beaters skip hurriedly over the statistics that would prove their denouncement, while their facile tongues coin such catch-phrases as 'second class citizenship', 'minority race' and other cliches designed to stir up racial awareness among people who were getting along in a natural pattern until the integration issue assumed outsize proportions.

"An honest effort to return sane thinking to our discussion of race relations will be the avowed purpose of the National Association for Advancement of White People, to the end that the opinions and personal privileges of the millions of people, who have so far uttered not one word in the frenzied campaign for forced integration of the races, may be allowed an honest impetus in balancing the scales against the juggernaut which has so far ridden roughshod over simple logic and rational appraisal. We hold no brief for twisted reasoning, misplaced fanaticism or the incitement of unrest by misleading propaganda, such mouthings will be answered by incontrovertible facts whenever they appear in the future. Dictation of our thinking and personal associations is a long step toward complete sublimation of self, to the whims of those who would secure political power at the expense of the personal rights of citizens of all races."

b2 [REDACTED] also furnished a subscription for membership blank from the above organization which contains the following as a prerequisite for joining the organization. "I am white, above the age of 21 and a citizen of the United States. I have never, nor do I intend, to ever become a member of any organization that advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States of America.

"It is understood and agreed that after becoming a member of this organization I reserve the right to vote as I please, worship as I please or do as I please as long as I feel that it is rightful, but I do believe - in segregation with appropriate facilities for people of any color."

LEFT-WING PAPERS LIE TO NORTHERNERS

BY BRYANT BOWLES

The "king" and his white queen.

Shown above is a preview of what the Supreme Court's anti-segregation ruling ultimately means for parents everywhere. The above event occurred last month when students at Los Angeles City College selected a Negro "king" and a white queen to reign over the school's 25th anniversary celebration...

South Indignant As Jew-Led NAACP Wins School Segregation Case

LOS ANGELES—Nowhere in America is the cult of "brotherhood" taken more seriously than in California, where from kindergarten on the child is continuously taught the blessings of racial equality and the horrors of "bigotry". Last month some of the visible results of this "tolerance" propaganda were especially apparent to the parents of Los Angeles when the tax-supported Los Angeles City College, largest junior college in the U.S., celebrated its 25th anniversary. Chosen as queen of the silver anniversary event was Barbara Lee Cooke, an attractive white co-ed. The "king", however, was a Negro as black as the ace of spades. "Brotherhood", quite obviously, was beginning to pay off in Los Angeles...

A LESSON

Actually, the disgraceful spectacle at Los Angeles City College should provide a lesson not only to the parents of Los Angeles (many of whom originally came from the deep South) but to parents everywhere. It is this: if white children are educated with Negroes, sent to church with them, thrown into constant and intimate social contact with them, and in addition are continuously impressed with the virtues of racial equality, then such things as this are inevitable. Young people who are taught all their lives that it is wicked to discriminate between black and white cannot be blamed Interracial cake-cutting ceremony...

I have recently returned from a tour of some of the southern states. My main reason for going was to check on the stories being printed in northern news papers about how the southern people were reacting to the U.S. Supreme Courts' "Black Monday".

I found that 99% of both whites and blacks bitterly oppose mixing the races in the schools. These people courageously threaten to spill their blood before it will happen in Dixie. Some white parents threaten to move out of their state if said state adheres to the Supreme Courts' ruling. Others threaten to dynamite the schools if they integrate. Majority of employers say they will fire any negro employee that sends his children to a white school. These people are as serious as the day is long.

One County Judge told me, "there is a popular misconception among the American people as to why the war between the states was fought. A majority of the people in this country believe it was fought over cotton which the South was shipping to England while the mills in the Northern States stood idle. But," stated the Judge, "if these left-wing agitating groups don't leave the Southern Whites and blacks alone, they are going to touch off another war, and you can bet your life cotton won't have anything to do with it." (This judge also joined the NAAWP)

The Attorney General of one Southern State sent out Questionnaires to all of the sheriffs, asking if they will be able to handle the situation when the riots break out this school term. It didn't say, if the riots break out. One sheriff wrote back and said, "How do you expect me to handle a riot when I have children of my own and I will spill my own blood from one end of this state to the other before they will attend mixed schools?" Another sheriff wrote only two words on his. "Hell no."

The people of the south believe mixing the races is a social custom, and does not believe the U.S. Supreme has the authority to legislate the habits of people. They believe the Southern Negro is happy due to the fact 70% of them live in the 17 southern states. They also believe the Southern Negro is being done a grave injustice by left-wing northern negro agitators which endeavor to stir him up and incite him to yell when he isn't hurt.

CAREER MEN LEAVING INTEGRATED ARMED FORCES

Recently the President signed a bill which went into effect immediately, raising the re-enlistment bonus for service men. The President said this was necessary to halt the high rate of seasoned service men which are leaving the armed forces upon expiration of their enlistment.

What the President did not state was the reason these men are leaving the service of their country after putting more than 10, 12, or 14 years toward a 20 year retirement. These men are fed up with the integrated armed forces and here are some of the reasons:

They have to live in barracks with negroes that steadily keep up a stream of language that even a white sailor, soldier, or Marine would never think of using.

They have to share the showers and toilets with negroes that brings in venereal diseases which he never reports to the medical. The average negro service man will not voluntarily ask for medical treatment of these diseases.

too much if they fail to discriminate between a black "king" and a white queen for their school anniversary, nor, for that matter, if they fail to discriminate between a white or black marriage partner. . .

SEGREGATION CASE

Ironically, the episode at Los Angeles City College occurred on the eve of the Supreme Court's decision outlawing segregated schools. And fittingly enough, the Court's anti-segregation decision was read by chief-justice Earl Warren, former governor of California and a life-long advocate of race-mixing. Warren's new mission, it would seem, is to extend California's race-mixing program to all the 48 states. . .

Although several states, including California, have long maintained interracial schools, 21 states and the District of Columbia have continued to segregate Negroes and whites. It is on these states that the real impact of the Court's radical decision will fall, because they contain a substantial majority of the nation's entire Negro population. The population of Mississippi, for example, is about half white and half Negro. In the District of Columbia, which Eisenhower has fatuously designated as a "pilot model" for the various states to emulate, 57% of the students enrolled in public schools are Negro while only 43% are white.

ULTIMATE EFFECT

The ultimate effect of the Supreme court's ruling against segregated schools will not, however, be apparent for many years. The process of mixing whites and Negroes in the classroom may, as a matter of fact, be relatively slow in many cases.

The real damage will be done on the psychological front. The child will be conditioned at first to accept the mere presence of Negro students in the classroom. Later he will be taught that all races are equal in ability and intellectual capacity and that there is no essential difference between the various racial groups. He will be inoculated against the evils of "bias" and "prejudice", and trained to look upon any manifestation of racial pride or consciousness as anti-social, if not criminal. . .

BRAINWASH

Only when this process of brainwashing is far enough along will the student be introduced to the joys of interracial social activities. Needless to say, it is only a step from there to interracial love-making and marriage, and as a matter of fact the legal barriers against interracial marriages have already been obliterated in some states. And if all this seems far-fetched and over imaginative, it should be remembered that this very thing has already occurred in some states, as the photographs

The organization primarily responsible for obtaining the Supreme Court decision outlawing segregated schools is the powerful, trouble-making "National Association for the Advancement of Colored People" (NAACP). The school segregation case is but the latest of a long series of NAACP victories on the "civil rights" front.

Our kept press has suppressed the fact, but the leadership of NAACP is not Negro, but Jewish. President of NAACP is the Jew, Arthur Spingarn (above right) — who has

of Los Angeles City College will attest. . .

N.A.A.C.P.

In this connection it would be well to give some attention to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) which in the main was responsible for bringing about the school segregation ruling. The NAACP brought four separate suits challenging the legality of segregated schools and it was on the basis of this action that the Court rendered its startling decision outlawing segregated schools.

SILENT REVOLUTION

This, incidentally, is but the latest of a series of court victories achieved by the radical, trouble-making NAACP—victories which have brought about a "silent revolution" in race relations in this country within the past decade.

The NAACP's most notable victory previous to the school segregation case was, of course, the ruling under which the Supreme Court outlawed restrictive covenants, thus making it possible for Negroes to force their way into previously all-white neighborhoods.

The NAACP won another outstanding victory when it obtained a Supreme Court ruling which compels Washington D.C. restaurants and hotels to cater to Negroes—a precedent which is bound to be applied elsewhere as time goes on.

In other Supreme Court cases the NAACP won decisions which insure Negroes the "right" to attend white universities and to ride with whites in public conveyances. . .

There have been other similar cases. In each instance it was the NAACP bringing suit; in each case the Supreme Court either upheld obscure and little known anti-segregation laws, or it outlawed statutes under which segregation was enforced.

OTHER VICTORIES

The NAACP has also advanced the "silent revolution" with the help of the executive branch of the government. Its greatest victory in this field was the "integration" of Negroes and whites in the Armed Forces. Under the "integration" program—started under Truman and completed this year by Eisenhower—all branches of the military have been mongrelized, with Negroes and whites serving together in interracial units for the first time in American history. In many respects the NAACP regards this as its greatest victory, surpassing even the school segregation case in importance.

LITTLE F.E.P.C.

Another NAACP victory, won with the help of organized Jewry, was the so-called "little F.E.P.C." which Eisenhower instituted last year. The "little F.E.P.C." compels all government contractors to hire Negroes and members of other minority groups under threat of having their contracts cancelled, thus imposing over a substantial portion of American industry a de facto FEPC. . .

THE PATTERN

This, then, is the pattern of the "silent revolution"—a silent, creeping, insidious revolution which even at this moment is stealing upon this Republic like an assassin in the night. And it should be noted that this revolution is not being promoted by legislation, but by executive decree and court decision. Not a single one of the above described "civil rights" victories was obtained through an act of Congress. . .

BEHIND N.A.A.C.P.

This brings us to the question as to what the NAACP's ultimate objective really is. This is important because we know from past experience the NAACP no sooner wins a concession than it makes new and even more extreme demands; each victory is followed by new agitation. It is appropriate, therefore, to examine the NAACP program in some detail.

JEWISH LEADERSHIP

Before doing that, however, it is necessary to correct a popular misconception as to the leadership of the NAACP. Because it is not really and truly a Negro organization at all. The people behind the NAACP are not Negroes but Jews. This will come as a surprise to some because the organization invariably uses Negroes in front for its activities, and the rank and file of its staff is Negro. Nevertheless the president of NAACP, and the real power in the organization, is the Jew Arthur Spingarn. When this fact is digested the revolutionary program of the NAACP becomes a little more comprehensible. . .

THINGS TO COME

The NAACP's objective for the next ten years is no secret. On the contrary it has been mapped out in detail and publicized under the slogan, "Free by 63". The "Free by 63" campaign was launched last March at a Washington D.C. meeting with the blessings of Ike Eisenhower, who addressed the convention. The plan calls for the raising of a million dollars annually for the next ten years and the announced goal is the total abolishment of racial segregation.

THE GOAL

In simple terms, the NAACP's goal is to "integrate" Negroes into white residential neighborhoods until the "black belt" and the all-white neighborhood are merged and thus cease to exist as such. The NAACP's program is based upon the premise that anti-discrimination laws now in existence

COMMUNISM HITS SOUTH WITH NON-SEGREGATION

Jewish Marxists Threaten Negro Revolt In Americal Communists Plan Black Republic In South

By EUSTACE MULLINS

(Readers of Common Sense will be shocked to learn that the recent decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation in schools actually carried out a 1921 Resolution of the Communist International. Mr. Mullins spent weeks tracing the sinister origin of this un-American decision.)

Although millions of American citizens were stunned by the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States that segregation in public schools must be ended, few realized that this decision was the culmination of a vicious campaign to destroy American liberties. This campaign had its origin in a 1921 directive of the Communist International written by the Soviet Chief of Propaganda, Karl Radek, the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn.

The Radek directive gave explicit orders to the Communist Party of America to stir up racial strife between white and black American citizens, to force the two groups together in order to create race riots, and to carry on relentless agitation for "Negro rights".

This directive was read at the Bridgman Michigan convention of the Communist Party of America on August 20, 1922. It laid down the basis for "civil rights" agitation and step by step outlined the methods which have been used since that date by the American Jewish Congress and its subsidiary, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Two days later, on August 22, 1922, the Bridgman Convention was raided by government agents and the Radek directive as well as hundreds of other Communist documents were seized. These documents are in the files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation today, but J. Edgar Hoover is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost, because it would brand the Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International.

One of the great authorities on Communist infiltration, R. M. Whitney, wrote in his definitive work "Reds In America", published in 1924 by the Beckwith Press, on page 189.

"The Communists' earliest program in the United States included the use of the negro masses in its campaign to bring about the overthrow of the Government of this country by violence."

At the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International held in Moscow in 1928, the slogan for America "Self-Determination in the Black Belt" was devised. In 1930 the Communist Party published the official "Resolution of the Communist International on the Negro Question in the United States". We quote from this resolution,

"The main Communist slogan must be: The right of self-determination of the Negroes in the Black Belt. . . . If the slogan of self-determination of the Negroes is to be put into force it is necessary wherever possible to bring together into one governmental unit all districts of the South where the majority of the settled population consists of Negroes. . . . The right of the Negroes to governmental separation will be unconditionally realized by the Communist Party. . . . The Communist Party must stand up with all strength and courage for the struggle to win independence and for the establishment of a Negro Republic in the Black Belt."

PAUL ROBESON Negro Communist Leader

THE ANSWER!

Address by Tom Linder, Commissioner of Dept. of Agriculture Before the Georgia Education Commission, Senate Chamber, State Capitol, Atlanta, Georgia, June 23, 1954.

Your Excellency, Governor Tolmudge; Members of the Commission, and visitors:

There is no reason to abolish or discontinue our present public schools. The people of Georgia, I am sure, are determined to maintain segregation of the races in our public educational institutions. They are equally determined to maintain their system of public education. There is no reason why they should not be able to do both.

TOM LINDER

Every white child and its parents shall have the opportunity to attend an all-white school. Every colored child and its parents shall have the opportunity to attend an all-colored school. No white child will be forced to attend a mixed school and no colored child will be forced to attend a mixed school. If there be those among us afflicted with a sociological complex or psychological complex, or that are suffering from some perverted instinct that makes it impossible for them to be happy and contented with their own race, the Legislature will make provisions to provide for such cases, either in public institutions or in private institutions. All these things are consistent with the Constitution, with the statutes and even with the latest decision of the Supreme Court.

In the future, the people of Georgia and the other states must see to it that the seats in the United States Senate and House of Representatives are filled with men who will use every right, prerogative and power at their command to erase from the government and the courts every individual guilty of usurpation of powers and exercising unauthorized use of constituted powers to destroy the rights of the states under the Constitution which is the real basis of our present problem which has been brought to us ready-made by outsiders and does not, in any way, originate among the people of Georgia,

VIEWS OF A NORTHERN NEGRO

During recent years, the press of the United States has reflected various opinions concerning segregation in our public schools — and the probable effect of integration on the pupils, and the community as a whole. The problem has reached the Supreme Court.

On January 25, 1953, Davis Lee, Negro Publisher and editor of the Newark, N. J., Telegram, expressed this sound and timely view of the repercussions we might expect if the forces of agitation prove victorious. It is the best argument we have read.

He said:

"The efforts being made by certain paid agitators and pressure groups to have segregated schools in the South declared unconstitutional — may cause Southern Negroes to lose a lot more than they will gain.

"The trouble with this group, as with similar ones, is that the initiators don't count the overall cost to the race. The present effort is designed to destroy the whole pattern of segregation — and to establish an integrated social order in which there will be no distinction made in this country on the basis of race, religion, color or nationality.

"This is a laudable objective, but human nature just has not changed that much, and the achievement of such an objective could cause repercussions that might set the Negro back fifty years.

"Integration in the schools in the North and East — is not a howling success. A Negro can attend most of the schools up here — and get an education — but few of the states that educate him will hire him as a teacher. The State of Connecticut doesn't have twenty-five Negro teachers. . . .

"Nowhere in these integrated states do Negroes get anywhere near proportionate representation. Every device is employed to keep qualified Negroes from being assigned. Recently a reputable New York labor union made a report on the employment of Negro teachers in New York City — and charged that a systematic scheme has been adopted to exclude Negroes as teachers.

"This is not true in the South. The State of Georgia employs 7,313 Negro teachers, and paid them close to $15,000,000 in salaries last year. North Carolina paid its riat of the Executive Committee of the Communist International stated in a letter to the American Communist Party.

"Communists must unreservedly carry on a struggle for the self-determination of the Negro population in the Black Belt in accordance with the decisions of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International."

This dictate has been periodically restated by the Communist Party, and in December, 1946 it was reissued as a "Resolution on Negro Rights and Self-Determination."

Felix Frankfurter

The anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court was dictated by one of the most sinister men in America, an Austrian Jew named Felix Frankfurter, leader of the radical World Zionist movement and a lifelong advocate of Socialism and leftwing objectives. Felix Frankfurter was head of defense committee for Sacco and Vanzetti, anarchists who were electrocuted in Massachusetts in 1927. A law partner of Henry L. Stimson in the firm of Winthrop and Stimson, lawyers for Kuhn, Loeb Co., international Jewish bankers who financed the Communist Revolution in Russia, Frankfurter was first thrust upon the American people by President Woodrow Wilson, who brought a horde of alien Socialists to Washington and set up the Socialist hierarchy which was reinstated in power fifteen years later by his understudy Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Wilson appointed Frankfurter as counsel for the Presidential Mediation Commission in the Mooney Case. As the defender of a group of Communist bomb-throwers and terrorists, Frankfurter had the temerity to try to influence Theodore Roosevelt in the decision. Theodore Roosevelt replied in an open letter which has been publicized for years, as follows:

"You have taken and are taking an attitude which seems to me to be fundamentally that of Trotsky and the other Bolshevik leaders in Russia, an attitude which may be fraught with mischief to this country. . . . There again you have engaged in excusing men precisely like the Bolsheviks in Russia, who are murderers and encourages to murder, who are traitors to their allies, to democracy and civilization, as well as to the United States, and whose acts are nevertheless apologized for on grounds, my dear Mr. Frankfurter, substantially like those which you allege."

The official publication of the World Zionist Organization, the Zionist Bulletin, reported in the issue of September 2, 1919:

"A dinner in honor of the Hon. Justice Brandeis, prior to his return to America, was given by the Executive of the World Zionist Organization on August 28 at the Ritz Hotel. Prof. Frankfurter, in proposing the toast to his Majesty's Government, referred to the months of hard work in which he and the other Jewish delegates had been engaged in Paris. They often spoke in different tongues; but they were all animated by a single sentiment—the welfare of Israel and the good of Zion."

The welfare of Israel and the World Jewish conspiracy has always been the single sentiment of Frankfurter's life. One of the architects of the Versailles Peace Conference in 1920 which made the Second World War inevitable because of the impossible terms inflicted upon Germany, Frankfurter was instrumental in carving out the artificial state of Czechoslovakia by forcing together people of different nationalities, which made the Sudeten crisis inevitable. He also stirred up anti-Semitism all over Europe by including in the Treaty special privileges for Jewish residents of all European countries, with the threat that the United States would force the European nations to grant those special Jewish privileges.

American Civil Liberties Union National Committee

Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter has always been a close associate of some of the most dangerous radicals in America. He served on the National Committee of the

ARTHUR SPINGARN

Herbert Lehman

American Civil Liberties Union with William Z. Foster, an open and professed Communist and the active leader of the Communist Party of America. Also on this National Committee was Morris Hillquit, counsel for the American Communist Party, and many other leaders of the Communist conspiracy. Is this not strange company for a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States? When we realize that the anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court followed a directive of the Communist International, we can understand why the decision was written by an associate of the leaders of the Communist Party, who is also the brother of a notorious convict.

Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties Union, testified before the Lusk Committee Investigating Communism as follows:

"The advocacy of murder, unaccompanied by any act, is within the legitimate scope of free speech . . . I would say on behalf of the entire committee that all of them disbelieve the theory of constructive intent, and that all of them believe in the right of persons to advocate 'the overthrow of government by force and violence.'"

Thus Baldwin, speaking for Frankfurter and the other members of the American Civil Liberties Union, defended the right of individuals to advocate the overthrow of the American Government by violence. How can we keep a man on the Supreme Court who believes in such basic Communist theories?

Mr. Holaday of the Lusk Committee asked Allen S. Olmstead of the ACLU:

"Did I understand you to say that an alien has a right to preach the overthrow of Government, and anarchy?"

Mr. Olmstead replied, "Yes." Thus, Frankfurter of Austria comes over here and because of the international political power of world Jewry, gets himself appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States despite his hatred of our free American institutions, and proceeds to undermine our country by forcing Negroes and whites together in our schools, to precipitate race riots, and fulfill the Radek directive of 1921. The Lusk Committee summed up as follows:

"The American Civil Liberties Union, in the last analysis, is a supporter of all subversive movements, and its propaganda is detrimental to the interests of the State."

Yet Frankfurter continued as an important official of this group. He was also a director of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People).

Our Worst Supreme Court

The present Supreme Court is a sorry gathering of political hacks, professional Jewish apologists, and democratic leftovers. Justice William Douglas is a prominent member of the United World Federalists, a group financed by the Communist apologist James Paul Warburg of the Soviet revolutionary banking family. United World Federalists actively seeks to subvert the legal government of the American people and substitute a world government in which our citizens will have no control over their own fate. On May 14, 1952, Douglas addressed the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers at Atlantic City. As reported in The Daily Worker and other leftwing publications, he said,

"Revolution is our business. We want United Nations recognition for China and American aid for Mao (leader of Communist China)."

Douglas was a classmate of radical Robert Hutchins at Yale. A darling of leftwing labor leaders and Jewish revolutionaries, Douglas has been advocated for the Presidency of the United States by these groups. He recently accepted a $1000 Sidney Hillman Award from Jewish labor leaders.

Chief Justice Earl Warren was appointed to that post by Eisenhower for the specific job of ratifying the anti-segregation decision. Warren as Governor of California spent so much time at Jewish banquets that it was said he lost his taste for Christian food.

Justice Tom Clark has cravenly refused to appear before Congressional Committees investigating the startling corruption of the Department of Justice during his term as Attorney General. He has been sharply criticized by many Congressmen investigating this corruption. A typical greedy, self-serving politician, he eagerly went along with the anti-segregation decision, although he is from Dallas, Texas, where he was unknown in the legal profession.

Jewish Revolutionaries Enlist Negro Supporters

The Jewish Communist Party of America has always envisioned arming the 15,000,000 American Negroes as an army with which to enslave the white population of America. For instance, when Senator Eastland of Mississippi protested against the recent anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court, the New York Post of June 15, 1954 carried a letter by Harry Brice. The New York Post is edited by Dorothy Schiff, Jewess, and owned by the Schiff family. Jewish International bankers financed the 1917 Communist Revolution in Russia. The letter carried in the New York Post, of June 15, 1954, is as follows:

"Sen. Eastland (Dem., Miss.) says the government would have to send an army into the south to enforce non-segregation. That's no problem. You could raise ten divisions in Harlem alone."

This letter is typical of what the radical Jews want to do to the White Christian population of America. Our Congressmen were horrified to learn from many witnesses before the House Un-American Activities Committee that the wholesale slaughter of ministers, school teachers, and independent businessmen in the South has already been planned by the Yiddish revolutionaries, in the process of setting up a Black Republic under the leadership of the notorious Negro Communist Paul Robeson. Robeson was awarded the 1952 Stalin Peace Award. During the Hearing before Un-American Activities Committee he declared "he would go to jail before he would say whether he was a Communist." He educated his son in Soviet Union. Robeson, who made millions of dollars as an entertainer in America because he was publicized and given rave reviews by the little clique of Communist Jews who control radio, television, and the movies, has always hated America.

Every other Negro who has been brought into prominence by the Jews has somewhere in his background an affiliation with Communism and left-wing causes. Consider the case of Dr. Mordecai Johnson, President of Howard University, an All-Negro University in Washington, D. C. which year after year receives more federal aid funds than any other school in America, a school which is the apple of the eye of Franklin D. Roosevelt's sallow helpmate, Eleanor, and a school which has harbored many of the most dangerous radicals in America. Here are the sentiments of Dr. Johnson as reported in the Chicago Defender of June 10, 1933. Speaking before an audience of young Negro intellectuals who were being trained as the black elite of the Communist Party, Dr. Johnson was reported as follows:

"Dr. Johnson urged his hearers not to allow the words Communism and Socialism to blind their eyes to the reality that on Russian soil today — It makes no difference what mistakes are being made or what crimes are being committed — there is a movement for the first time in the history of the world to make available all their natural resources for the life of the common man."

With such speeches many thousands of Negroes were recruited for the Communist Party. Yet Dr. Mordecai Johnson continues today as the President of Howard University, supported by large grants of taxpayers' funds, and is constantly hailed as one of our most outstanding citizens.

Dr. Ralph Bunche
Another "great" Negro citizen is Ralph Bunche, who holds an honorary degree of Doctor. When Count Folke Bernadotte was assassinated by Jewish terrorists in Israel, one of the most shocking crimes in modern diplomatic history, Bunche was chosen to replace him as United Nations mediator in the theft of Palestine from its Arab inhabitants. The Jews were pleased with Bunche's handling of their affairs, so pleased that David Niles (Neyhus) offered him the position of Assistant Secretary of State in Truman's cabinet. Bunche sneeringly refused, claiming that Washington is a Jim Crow town. Since the population of metropolitan Washington is already predominantly Negro, it is difficult to see how this could be. Actually, Bunche was merely creating an artificial issue for Communists to publicize in Russia. He accepted a better-paying job with the United Nations.

Why is Bunche a favorite of Jewish revolutionaries? The Daily Worker of November 10, 1938 gives us a clue. On the front page is a picture of a Negro Communist, just back from slaughtering nuns and priests in Spain. And below is a telegram welcoming him back to America from his church-burning expedition overseas. The signer of the telegram is Ralph Bunche of Howard University. Thus Bunche reveals his real allegiance and explains his sudden rise to fame and fortune, backed by the Jewish Communist clique.

They Planned It That Way

American citizens, stunned by the unconstitutional anti-segregation of our leftwing Supreme Court, do not realize that this decision has its origins in Communist dictates of more than one hundred years ago. Like the income tax and the inheritance tax, the anti-segregation decision was demanded by the Communist Manifesto of 1848, which first used the phrase "without regard to race, creed, or color". This phrase identifies any organization which uses it as a group which follows the fundamental purposes of Communism. The American Jewish Congress and its colored subsidiary, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, use this phrase in all of their publications as a basic principle of their groups.

Mongrelization

The Jewish Communist Israel Cohen in 1912 wrote a "A Racial Program for the Twentieth Century", in which he declared: "We must realize that our Party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. The terms colonialism and imperialism must be featured in our propaganda. In America, we will aim for a subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavour to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise to prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negroes will be able to inter-marry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause."

In the leaflet "Your Family and the NAACP", the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People declares that "The NAACP supports the United Nations and opposes colonialism and racism wherever they appear." Thus the NAACP follows the Cohen directive.

In the pamphlet "Crusade for Freedom", the NAACP states that:

"The NAACP youth division is a constituent member of the World Assembly of Youth and has consistently opposed colonialism and imperialism in every form."

Note the similarity of this declaration with the Cohen directive.

NAACP Founded by Jewish Revolutionaries
The fact that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People so closely follows the aims and directives of the Communist Party is more understandable when we learn that it was not founded by Patriotic Negro American citizens. It was founded by Jewish Communist revolutionaries. An NAACP leaflet featuring congratulatory statements by prominent citizens quotes Rabbi Irving Miller, former President of the American Jewish Congress as follows: "Our late President Dr. Stephen S. Wise, was one of the founders of the NAACP. Throughout the years, our cooperation with the Association has been a source of deep gratification to us. The intimate working relationships which we have enjoyed, both in major undertakings and the day-to-day routine of the struggle for the extension of human rights in this country, have contributed significantly to the objectives we commonly seek."

The New York Times of March 24, 1917 revealed that Rabbi Stephen S. Wise had led an hysterical celebration of the Communist Revolution in Russia, and addressed a mass meeting of gleeful Jewish Communists in Carnegie Hall on the previous evening. His son James Waterman Wise has been active in many Communist fronts. His daughter, Justine Wise Polier, appointed a children's judge in New York City by the radical Marxist Fiorello LaGuardia, is married to Shad Polier, a director of the American Jewish Congress.

The American Jewish Congress itself, working with the NAACP for common objectives, was founded by Jewish revolutionaries who had been expelled from Russia and who found a haven in the New York ghetto.

The NAACP has never adequately represented the Negro citizens of America. Instead, it has represented the sinister aims of Jewish radicals. The NAACP has always been dominated by Jews. Mary White Ovington, in "How the NAACP Began", published in 1951, tells how she, W. E. Walling and Dr. Henry Moskowitz set up the NAACP in 1909. She relates that Walling's wife had been imprisoned for some years in Russia for her revolutionary activities in trying to overthrow the Czarist government. She and Moskowitz issued a call for aid in founding the NAACP, signed by 53 people. More than one-third of those listed have been cited by our Government as Communists or members of radical Communist fronts. Senator Herbert H. Lehman, elected Governor of New York with the active support of the Communist Party, has been a director of the NAACP for many years. Its President today is the Jew Arthur Spingarn. More than one-third of the present life members of the NAACP are Jews! Thus it can be seen that the NAACP, far from representing our loyal Negro population, is merely a tool of Jewish radicals.

What has the NAACP done for America's Negro population? What constructive accomplishments can it show? The amazing rise in the living standard of the Negro was a result of the general prosperity of the United States in the past two decades. The NAACP has contributed nothing to our economy. Instead, it has continually sought to inflame the Negro citizens, against whites and to stir up class warfare in the best traditions of Marxism. NAACP branches should be treated as Communist cells and its active members watched with suspicion until it changes its tune, shakes off its Jewish domination, and works for American principles of freedom and justice.

We could go on for many pages, citing the Communist-front affiliations of NAACP directors. A typical one is Dr. Channing H. Tobias, Assistant-Treasurer of the NAACP, with 28 listings, of which we mention a few as follows:

From Appendix IX, House Committee on Un-American Activities, 1944:

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of American Committee for Defense of Russian Born, cited by the Committee as "founded by the Communist Party to exploit racial divisions in the United States for its own revolutionary purposes."

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of American League for Peace and Democracy, cited by the Committee as "one of the most effective Communist front organizations ever operated in this country."

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of People's Institute of Applied Religion, cited by the Committee as "one of the most vicious Communist organizations ever set up in this country."

These are only a few mentions of the 28 listings of Channing H. Tobias, Asst. Treasurer of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People showing the kind of organization which it is.

NAACP Publications And Activities

In its booklet "Audio Visual Aids to Interracial Understanding. Teaching Democracy", the NAACP recommends the film "Achinota", narrated by the notorious atheist Dr. Julian Huxley, and the film "Brotherhood of Man" an animated cartoon based on the pamphlet Races of Man, written by Dr. Ruth Benedict and Gene Weltfish. Dr. Weltfish refused to answer a Congressional Committee as to whether she was a Communist and was later named as such. It also recommends the film "Democracy at Work in Rural Puerto Rico" made by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Common Sense was able to prevent the distribution of another leftwing film produced by Marxists in the Department of Commerce, the film "Don't Discriminate", which openly insults white Americans. When we informed our readers that this film was being produced, thousands of outraged Americans protested, with the result that the Department of Commerce now denies that this film was ever planned or produced.

NAACP also recommends in this booklet the film "Native Land", with song and narration by the famous Negro Communist leader Paul Robeson, whom the Communist Party has selected as the Black Dictator of the Soviet Republic of the South to be set up after the revolution in America. NAACP often cooperates with Communists and Communist fronts in its struggle to Sovietize America, but this does not mean that we should resist

Negro teachers over $22,000,000 last year. Florida is another state that ranks at the top on teachers pay.

"If these states that are now pouring millions of dollars annually into Negro pockets which provides our people with money that enables them to enjoy the dignity of man, to enjoy the prestige and respectability, to buy homes and the necessities of life — are forced to abandon the segregated school — 75 per cent of the Negro teachers in the South will lose their jobs. Not only that, but approximately 20,000 Negro principals will lose their jobs as well."

"This present movement to end segregation in the schools — is merely the beginning of a well laid plan to completely end segregation in everything in the South. If this happens, the Negro will be thrown into direct competition with the white race, and our business institutions will crumble."

"No place in the world do Negroes own and control as much as do those in the South. Atlanta is without question the Negro capital of the world. It is the center of Negro culture, education, business and finance. And both Negroes and whites live, work and operate business without either being conscious of the other's race."

"This movement to integrate the schools of the South, is loaded with more racial dynamite than appears on the surface — and the Negro will be the one who is blown away."

"During the past two years I have spent more time in the South than I have in my office; and I have interviewed thousands of Negroes in all walks of life — and I have found very few who favor mixed schools. They want their own schools, but equal facilities. This being the situation, one questions the fairness of forcing these colored citizens to accept what they don't want. If a little group of paid agitators succeed in forcing their will upon these people, it appears to me that they should at least be given an opportunity to be heard."

THE ANSWER!

white or colored.

The people should reward those public servants who, by their record, have demonstrated their courage and ability to carry on this fight, such as our own Governor. I shall lend all of my efforts and influence to this end.

I propose here today to present a definite plan to carry out these pledges. I am not unmindful of the fact that we are dealing with a momentous question involving many fields of constitutional law. I am not unmindful of the fact that as time goes by, other means and methods may present themselves, other angles may develop which will require the concerted effort of our best legal minds and our best school leaders. I am not, therefore, closing the book for any new ideas and new suggestions; but, as of now, the following plan is laid on the firm foundation, not only of our Federal and State Constitutions and our Federal and State Laws, but it is also laid on a firm foundation of laws more ancient than our Constitutions and more ancient than Magna Carta; and, it shall prevail.

With this preface, I will proceed to an analysis of our situation and an outline of the plan which I propose to preserve the rights, traditions, interests and welfare, of all the people of Georgia, whatever their race may be.

The Court's Decision

The Supreme Court held, in effect, that the State cannot, as a matter of Law, segregate school students merely on a basis of race or color. In doing so, in my opinion, the Court, by necessary implication, also ruled that the State cannot, as a matter of Law, force the mixing of students of different races and colors purely on a basis of race and color.

This, I think, gives us a real basis from which to work out a program where the people themselves can effectively segregate themselves without compulsion from the State.

Basis Of Separation

It is a well defined and recognized principle of constitutional law, as held by the Supreme Court in various cases, that no power resides in government, either Federal or State, to prevent discrimination by individual citizens. The prohibition against discrimination applies only to public action. This is firm ground on which to stand when the individuals choose to segregate themselves because of what they deem good and sufficient reasons.

Constitution, Bill of Rights, And Declaration of Independence

The people of Georgia, by and large, white and colored, and including other races, are people who believe in God. They are people who recognize the overruling providence that has made this country great. Most of them look upon marriage as a Holy God-ordained relationship. The rearing of their children, training them, protecting them during their minority from evils which the immature mind of children are not able to grasp or understand, is a part and parcel of the deep religious convictions of most people in this State. They believe in the ancient commandment "Thou shalt not remove the ancient land marks set by thy fathers." The most ancient landmark is the separation of the races and the maintaining of the purity of each race.

Since the Constitution guarantees everyone the unalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, each individual, without State compulsion, has a right to pursue their happiness in their own way limited only by the supreme law of not interfering with the other fellow's right to the pursuit of happiness.

This again gives firm ground for the individual to practice, voluntarily, and of his own choice, whatever segregation is necessary for his own pursuit of happiness. Ultimately, the people themselves are the court of last resort. This is true not only to the extent that they may change their government any time they see fit, that they may unseat and punish any and all officials who are guilty of usurpation of undelegated authority and that they may use whatever force is necessary for the accomplishment of that purpose. Therefore, in this extreme sense, the people are the court of last resort.

The people of Georgia have never exercised sanctions; but, on the other hand, they have paid taxes willingly, built churches, built schools, loaned money, extended credit, and in every way tried to help the colored people of the State. The people of Georgia will not, at this time, practice any sanctions against colored people except as a necessary last resort to protect their own human rights. But the people of Georgia can exercise sanctions under the ancient laws of private property, under the ancient law merchant, under the ancient laws of the right to hire and fire. In addition to this, the white people of Georgia can practice age old sanctions of social ostracism against those persons who are not members of the colored race, but who are engaged in the effort to breakdown and destroy the rights of the white citizens of the State.

In this sense, the people themselves are the court of last resort and from their decision there is no appeal.

Then again, the people themselves are the court of last resort at the ballot box, which is the machinery set up by civilized people to avoid the more severe remedy of sanctions and also to avoid the most extreme remedy of force and violence. It is, therefore, through this latter sense in which the people are the court of last resort that we intend first to approach a remedy for that evil thing which now besets us through the unconstitutional acts of our Supreme Court, aided and abetted by the Chief Executive and the Legislative branch of our national government. Therefore, I propose at this time, to follow a plan through which the people can maintain segregation in our public schools. I am convinced that the people of Georgia are not willing to surrender their public school system without a fight; and I am convinced that they do not intend to lose that fight. I am convinced that the people of Georgia do not intend for their children to attend mixed schools; and, I am convinced that they do not intend to lose that fight — whatever remedy they may have to resort to. I am convinced that no power on earth can force the white people of Georgia into mixed schools so long as they are unalterably determined to maintain the rights, they have to choose their own kind of school.

Proposal No. I

I propose, first, that the Legislature take appropriate action to provide for a full, thorough census of all children and parents who are now or may hereafter be patrons of public schools, requiring under oath a full statement as to the children and parents and stating definitely whether they choose to patronize an all-white school, an all-colored school or a mixed school. This census form also to be filled out by all teachers, other employers and officials connected with State or local education. When this census is completed, we will know who is who and where they are. This will force everyone to stand up and be counted.

Proposal No. II

I propose that the Legislature, by appropriate action, recognize and declare a State policy on education, recognizing that, under our present Constitution, it is impossible for the State to comply with the opinion of the Supreme Court, recognizing that no change can be made in that Constitution before the General Election in 1956; declaring a policy of putting out a plan for public education that will not be in conflict with the ruling of the Supreme Court, but which will also, at the same time, maintain the rights of all individuals. I propose that the Legislature work out and submit to the voters of the State in the General Election of 1956, a complete plan and also necessary constitutional amendments to put such plan into effect. The Legislature should declare as a State policy that, in the meantime, our present school system can operate only on a segregated basis because there is no money, under our present Constitution and appropriation act, to pay for any school other than segregated schools.

Proposal No. III

I propose that by appropriate legislation and vote of the people we create a pool of all school pupils, both in our common schools and in institutions of higher learning; this pool to be made up without reference to or in consideration of any race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude; each student and its parents to have the privilege, at their own request and without compulsion of the State in any way, to ask to be assigned to a school of their choice. That is, if a colored parent wants his children to go to an all-colored school, he may ask, without compulsion from the State in any way, to be assigned to an all-colored school. If a white parent desires for his children to attend an all-white school, he may request, on his own initiative and without compulsion from the State that his child or children be assigned to an all-white school.

Proposal No. IV

I propose the adoption of an amendment empowering the Legislature to decide these children who are not satisfied in either of the schools provided by the State so that they may use their pro rata share of school funds in attending private schools.

In this way, the State will not be compelling or requiring segregation of races but will be protecting all citizens in following their unalienable rights to a free choice. No white child will be required to go to an unsegregated school or to a segregated school. No colored child will be required to go to an unsegregated or segregated school. No child will be required to go to a mixed school. No child will be required to go to a private school. Every child can go to the school of his choice without compulsion from the State.

Proposal No. V

Require all school teachers and others connected with education, both public and private schools, at a condition to their employment, to teach absolute respect for all State laws, State Constitutions, State Courts, State Legislatures and State officials. The immature mind of school children is no place to sow seeds of discord, disrespect and lack of patriotism.

"He who makes his country live, makes all things live; And all things living bless him. But, he who lets his country die, lets all things die; And all things dying curse him."

Communism Takes Over

the Negroes as Communists. Most American Negroes are loyal, but many have fallen into the hands of Jewish radicals, and, dominated by such men as Arthur Spingarn, President of the NAACP, they become willing tools of Marxists in America.

Thus we find the Jew Theodore Rubin, Secretary of the Society for Racial Integration, stating in the Society's Annual Report of 1953:

"We are happy to report that thousands of happily married Negro and white couples are now residing in New York, Chicago, and other metropolitan areas. Thus our teachings of democracy are slowly taking root all over America, and each year we shall see thousands more Americans who have found that Negro-white marriages are living proof that the principles of liberalism will triumph. Educational programs and social legislation are breaking down the fascistic tendencies of white citizens, and our Society has every reason to believe that we shall see the Negro problem solved in our lifetime."

Government Forces Whites To Accept Negroes

In 1933, Franklin D. Roosevelt and a little group of Jewish revolutionaries, among them Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, founder of the NAACP, began a program of relentless assault against the white-Christian traditions of America. This program has been continued by Truman and Eisenhower. Under Eisenhower, it has almost reached its completion.

During the Second World War, Eleanor Roosevelt forced the Navy to mix whites and Negroes. When Anna Rosenberg was named as Assistant Secretary of Defense, after she had been identified as a Communist before a Senatorial Committee, she completed the process of racial integration in our armed forces. In Southern Army posts, white children were forced to go to Army schools with Negroes.

In 1948, the Supreme Court declared that racial provisions in Washington real estate agreements were illegal. Consequently, thousands of white home-owners lost their homes and were forced to move to the suburbs. Hundreds of blocks of our capital city became Negro slums.

What American Negroes Want

I recently returned from a trip through the Southern states. I talked to hundreds of white and Negro citizens about the Supreme Court anti-segregation decisions. Many Negroes were bitter against the NAACP and the left-wing politicians who had forced this decision to be enacted. One former official of the NAACP, a Negro educated in the North, had returned South because it was her home. She knew that the Jews and other Communists were using the Negro as a cat's paw in their struggle to Sovietize America. She was frightened at what lay ahead, and declared that the NAACP had undone much of the goodwill which had been built up slowly between whites and Negroes in the South. "Now it will be just like in the North," she said. "I came back home because the North is the real Jim Crow. There the Negro is at all times disliked and unwanted. Our friends are in the Southern states, and now the NAACP wants to take them from us."

I asked her if she knew about the Jewish control of NAACP. "That's why I quit" she said. "Our officials were always speaking before Jewish groups, appearing at Jewish fund-raising rallies, and conferring with officials of the American Jewish Congress. They have no sympathy with Negroes and they don't associate with Negroes. Walter White, the Executive Secretary of the NAACP, married a white woman and associated almost exclusively with Jewish millionaires. I wish the Negroes had an organization which did represent them."

National Association For Advancement of Colored People

The official Report of the Communist Party's 4th national convention stated that the party had penetrated the NAACP. Socialist Florence Kelley (formerly of Hull House), the personal friend of Engels and Lenin, and Jane Addams, a founder and for twenty years a member of the board of directors, was very active in the NAACP. The field secretary, Wm. P. Fickens, is a Socialist Party member, active as well in Communist affairs and organizations. (see Who's Who?) James Welden Johnson, Clarence Darrow, John Haynes Holmes, Oswald G. Villard and other executives have similar Red affiliations.

Mulattoes In Germany

Jewish Communists in Eisenhower's headquarters in London during the Second World War sent in thousands of Negro troops behind the combat forces in Germany. These Negro troops were encouraged to rape white German girls, with the result that there are now 30,000 mulatto children in Germany. These mulattoes predict the wave of the future. Either the white race must draw the line now and begin to fight for its survival, or it will disappear. The Jews want to arm Negroes during the planned Communist revolution in America. They look upon Negroes as their principal weapon against white American citizens. We should outlaw the NAACP because it is completely dominated by Jewish radicals who are working for a Marxist America. If the Negroes who are not corrupted by the Jews, they would be as good American citizens as anyone. Many of them realize that the Jews do not want to help the Negroes, and that they are trying to use the Negroes in their Communist war against us.

The NAAWP is the subject of a current Internal Security - X investigation in which Washington Field is office of origin. The initial report on the NAAWP dated July 1, 1954, at Washington, D. C., has been furnished to the Department and the intelligence agencies of the Armed Services.

The headquarters of the NAAWP is located at 1319 F Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. The NAAWP was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on December 14, 1953. According to a brochure issued by the NAAWP its task is to advance and strengthen the culture of the white race. To this end the NAAWP purposes (1) "to organize all those white people who wish to carry on and further develop the essential and permanent characteristics of our culture as previously developed and handed down by our forebears," (2) "to help educate our people through a program of lectures, books, pamphlets, papers, etc., in the true value of their culture, ~~and~~ their political, economic, religious, social, moral, scientific, recreational, etc., institutions, and to point out the good which it will promote, the bad which it will stamp out and the mistakes which it will correct" and (3) "to secure the necessary legislation to effect the program of advancing and strengthening the culture of the white people." In addition, the NAAWP seeks to advance the white race by ensuring its right to associate with those of its own kind, if they so desire. The NAAWP believes in "the equal protection of the laws for all citizens, whether white or Negro, but does not understand by that the white people do not have the right to associate with one another."

By teletype dated October 10, 1954, Baltimore advised that during a public appearance in Baltimore, Bryant W. Bowles, Jr., stated that two men, whom he believed to be FBI Agents, ransacked his apartment. According to Bowles, these two individuals claimed they were telephone company workmen.

"The Sunday Star," Washington, D. C., on October 10, 1954, carried an article reflecting that according to Bowles, two FBI Agents searched his apartment in Arlington, Virginia, on October 9, 1954. According to the article Bowles said he was sure it was the FBI that searched his apartment; however, he did not know it for a fact.

In view of the above allegation I called SAC Potter of the Richmond Office at 1:08 p.m. today and instructed him to check into the matter and advise the Bureau of the results by teletype.

some of the speakers said they represented the National Association for Advancement of White People. The article set forth that the resistance of parents to integration of Negro and white students in school was due largely to a small minority of "bigot" leaders. According to the article the resistance of white residents of Milford to integration of Negro and white children had been whipped to fever heat by TV, radio and telephone calls asking parents to keep their children from the school. The article continued that two airplanes were used carrying signs admonishing parents to keep their children from school.

September 26, 1954, Milford, Delaware

The Washington Afro-American on October 2, 1954 published a column entitled "NAACP Confident about Milford." This column set out that a meeting had been held on Sunday (9/26/54) at a private airport, the Harrington Airport in Delaware. At this meeting the article noted that BRYANT BOWLES, President of NAAWP "in one of his most scurrilous speeches of many a day, had attacked WALTER WHITE as a colored man who had deserted his colored wife to marry a white woman, accused NAACP lawyers of wanting to associate only with white people and delivered an Anti-Semitic tirade against NAACP President, ARTHUR SPINGARN, for being of Jewish descent."

The article also set forth that another meeting was scheduled at the airport for September 27, 1954. According to the paper, 5000 persons attended the meeting on Sunday September 26, 1954, which had been publicized all Sunday by an airplane which flew low over Milford, Delaware, with a loud speaker asking all white people to come to the meeting to uphold segregation.

October 1, 1954, Milford, Delaware

The Washington Daily News of October 1, 1954 in an article entitled "Baltimore Schools Hold Firm Despite Integration Protest" set forth that in Milford, Delaware a school board resigned in a body after threats from pro-segregation parents and a new board took office. The article related that this new board promptly ordered 11 Negro students to leave the Milford School and go to one in Dover, Delaware, 24 miles away. The article set forth that BRYANT W. BOWLES, a 34 year old Arlington, Ex-Marine who heads NAAWP was on hand celebrating the victory.

Further down in the article it was set forth that in Southern Delaware where BOWLES' NAAWP took over a public meeting two nights ago (9/20/54) officials said attendance in seven towns was "pretty badly affected" by the boycott of schools in Milford.

October 5, 1954, Baltimore, Maryland

The Washington Post and Times Herald on October 7, 1954 carried an article entitled, "BOWLES of NAAWP moves into Anacostia's Student Demonstration." This article set forth that on Tuesday, October 5, 1954, BOWLES "swung into the leadership of the Baltimore School tempest and asked for avoidance of violence and boasted that under his leadership Negroes were forced out of the schools in Milford 'without a fist being swung.'"

October 6, 1954, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

The Washington Post and Times Herald on October 7, 1954 published an article entitled, "Philadelphia threatens to arrest BOWLES". This article mentioned that District Attorney RICHARDSON DILWORTH had stated on October 6, 1954 that BRYANT BOWLES, head of NAAWP, would be arrested if he attempted to repeat in Philadelphia anti-race integration meetings he had sponsored elsewhere. The article mentioned that DILWORTH stated "if BOWLES pursues the tactics in Philadelphia that he attempted in other cities I shall promptly issue an order for his arrest for inciting to riot."

October 7, 1954, Anacostia, Washington, D. C.

The Washington Post and Times Herald on October 7, 1954 in an article entitled, "BOWLES of NAAWP moves into Anacostia Student Integration Demonstration" set forth that BOWLES had announced his intention of holding a meeting in Fairlawn Park near Anacostia High School in Washington, D. C. The article informed that local Police had orders to acquaint BOWLES with regulations forbidding public meetings without permits and to arrest him if he did not abide by them. He was denied permission to speak to the students when he refused to urge them to return to class.

October 7, 1954, Dover, Delaware

This same article referred to immediately above, also set forth that the State of Delaware Attorney General, H. ALBERT

WFO 100-26356

YOUNG, has brought suit to strip the NAAWP of its corporate charter and restrain it from soliciting members and collecting dues. According to the paper YOUNG charged the NAAWP with "abuse and misuse of its corporate power" and declared among other things it has encouraged by means of mass hysteria, mob-rule, boycott, and race prejudice, the closing of public schools.

October 7, 1954, Washington, D. C.

The Pittsburgh Courier on October 9, 1954 published an article entitled, "Courier Exposes Vicious Minds Behind Disorder". The article set forth the following:

"The leaders of the Milford, Delaware public school disorders which spread rapidly to Baltimore and then to the District of Columbia were identified as WILLIAM BRYANT BOWLES, age 34, founder of the so-called National Association for the Advancement of White People, and WILLIAM V. McCALL, Sheriff of Lake County, Florida." The article related that McCALL had addressed a meeting of 3000 persons on a vacant lot near Milford, Delaware, and congratulated the "whites" on their success in forcing the removal of 11 Negro students from Milford High School and promised that thousands of people would come up from Florida and other Southern States to aid them, if they spread their campaign to other communities.

October 9, 1954, Glen Burnie, Maryland

The Washington Evening Star in an article captioned, "The Founder of NAAWP is Everywhere at Once, Police Records Show That He is Elsewhere Too," published on October 7, 1954 set forth that BOWLES had informed reporters that the membership total of his organization soon would hit fifty thousand members. BOWLES, according to the article, hinted that membership now exceeds thirty-one thousand. The article set forth that BOWLES estimated he had three thousand members in the District of Columbia and at least two thousand in Maryland, and that a rally was being staged at Glen Burnie, Maryland on Saturday, October 9, 1954 to seek more members.

October 10, 1954, Milford, Delaware

The Washington Post and Times Herald on October 11, 1954 published an article entitled, "BOWLES is Arrested Twice in Delaware." This article set out that BRYANT BOWLES, President of NAAWP, was arrested by the State of Delaware on October 10, 1954, at Milford and charged with conspiring to violate the State Education Law by leading a boycott of Milford's integrated high school. The article indicates that after raising $6,000 bond, BOWLES returned to the Harrington Airport near Milford, where he was arrested again on a warrant issued by Attorney General H. ALBERT YOUNG at the direction of Governor J. CALEB BOGGS of Delaware. The article related that BOWLES had flown into the Harrington Airport that day where police estimated six thousand persons were assembled for a meeting.

October 10, 1954, Baltimore, Maryland

The article referred to immediately above also reflected that BOWLES attended an open air meeting near Baltimore where he helped to form a Maryland Chapter of NAAWP. At the same time, the article continued, he was served with a summons to appear before the Internal Revenue Service in Wilmington, Delaware on Monday (10/11/54) for alleged failure to pay Federal Taxes. The article set forth that the charge had nothing to do with the NAAWP but related to a roofing business BOWLES operated in Baltimore in 1952.

October 11, 1954, Milford, Delaware

The Washington Evening Star, October 11, 1954, in an article captioned, "BOWLES arrested, Bars Fiscal Data to State Official," set forth that subpoenas had been issued on last Friday (10/8/54) by Delaware State Attorney General, H. ALBERT YOUNG, calling upon the NAAWP to hand over data on its finances and operations. The article quoted BOWLES as stating, "I'll turn these records over to any authorized court that requests them, but I'll not turn them over to the Attorney General."

The article set out that BOWLES was free under $6,000 bond for a November 5 hearing at Dover, Delaware on charges of conspiracy to violate the State Education Law by leading a boycott of Milford's High School.

October 11, 1954, Baltimore, Maryland

The Washington Post and Times Herald of October 12, 1954 published an article entitled, "BOWLES Fails To Appear On Tax Subpoena," set forth that BRYANT BOWLES, President of NAAWP, failed to appear for a scheduled conference on October 11, 1954.

with the Director of Internal Revenue at Baltimore. The article related that BOWLES later notified the Baltimore Internal Revenue Office that he had been held up by another summons in Delaware. The article continued that a mass meeting was to take place on October 11, 1954 to whip up opposition to a court test on Tuesday (10/12/54), on re-assigning 11 Negro pupils to the Milford High School.

October 11, 1954, Lincoln, Delaware

The Washington Evening Star on October 12, 1954 published an article captioned, "Delaware Chancellor to Hear Appeal on Milford Race Ban." This article related that a meeting was held on October 11, 1954 at Lincoln, Delaware to have people attend a court session on October 12, 1954 where the State Chancellor was scheduled to hear an appeal by the NAACP to reinstate 11 Negro students who were forced from the school by actions of the NAAWP and other anti-integrationists.

October 12, 1954, Georgetown, Delaware

The Washington Post and Times Herald of October 13, 1954 in an article entitled, "Court Order Requested in Milford Case," set forth that Delaware Attorney General, H. Albert YOUNG, on October 12, 1954, requested from Vice Chancellor WILLIAM MARVEL of Sussex County, Delaware an injunction with which State Authorities could prosecute persons who resist integration. The article related that YOUNG appeared as a "friend of the court" to request that a temporary injunction sought by the NAACP to restrain the Milford School Board from barring Negro students from Milford High School be granted. Further down the article, it was related that BRYANT W. BOWLES, Head of NAAWP was one of over 100 persons assembled outside the courtroom.

Officers of the NAAWP

The Washington Post and Times Herald in a report published October 7, 1954 captioned, "BOWLES of NAAWP Moves Into Anacostia Student Integration Demonstration" set forth the following officers for the organization:

Milford, Delaware

The Delaware State News, Dover, Delaware, dated January 14, 1955, contains an article which is quoted in part as follows:

"Speaking before an estimated 200 persons last evening, BRYANT W. BOWLES, president of the NAAWP, announced that the NAAWP National Headquarters was being moved from Washington, D. C. to Milford.

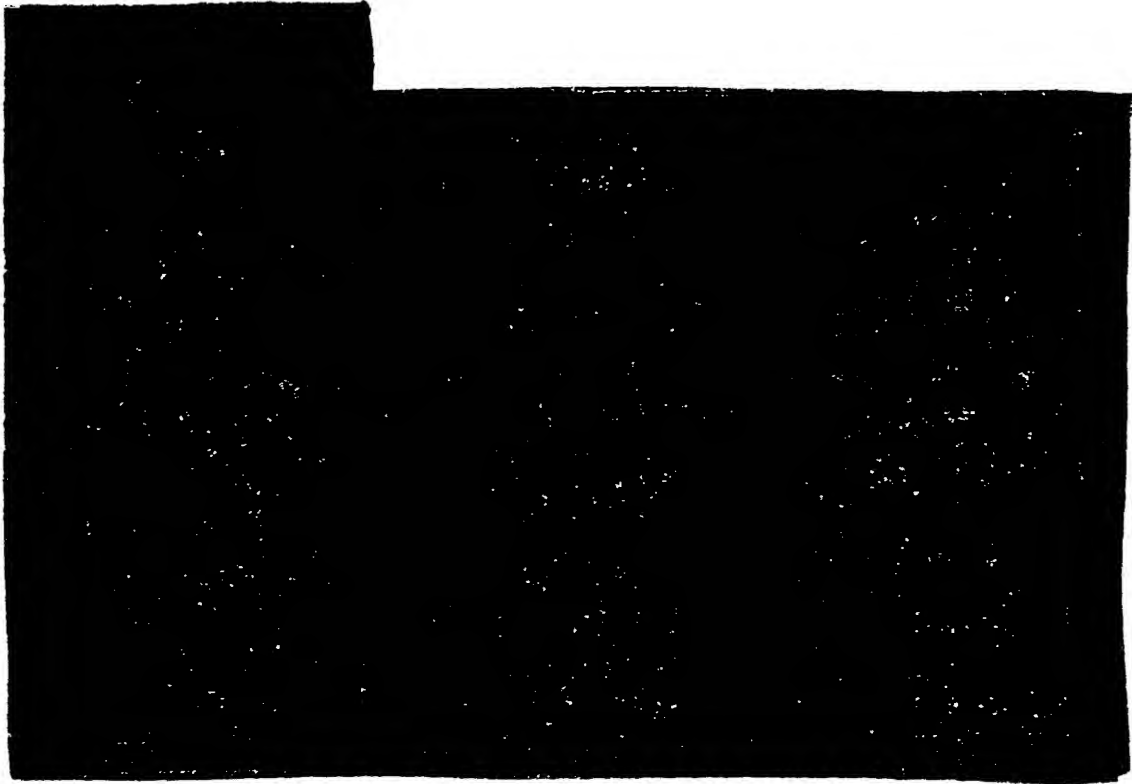

BA 100-17756

"EISENHOWER is making Washington the pilot model for the Negro, so we'll make Delaware the pilot model for the whites," BOWLES said.

"You can never have integration," BOWLES continued. "It's as simple as this . . . the Negroes move in and the whites move out" . . . and that's what is happening in Washington."

"BOWLES told the gathering that he was moving the headquarters to Milford because he didn't like 'the nation's black capitol.'"

" In discussing the organization's finances and the need for additional funds, BOWLES said that there were 1,300 members in the state. He revealed before the meeting that the NAAWP was strongest in Florida where the membership was around 2,000."

ITEM 2. An order of the Court of Chancery, State of Delaware, dated October 5, 1954, ordering that defendant corporation, NAAWP, show cause October 22, 1954, why a preliminary injunction should not issue as prayed for.

ITEM 3. Affidavit of FREDERICK K. LAMB, Officer, Delaware State Police, filed October 14, 1954, stating that during the period of demonstration by leaders and members of the NAAWP and boycott of the Milford School which occurred during the week of September 27, 1954, crowds milled around the school and automobiles passed the school with the following legends:

BA 100-17756

"Send them back to Africa"

"Join the NAAWP"

"Pupils Boycott Milford School"

"Honor the 1400 pupils of Milford school by keeping your children out of school"

ITEM 27. In respondent's brief against plaintiff's rule to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue, respondent NAAWP denied the allegations of abuse and misuse of its charter and contends that a prayer to issue a preliminary injunction be refused.

In a letter to the Register, Court of Chancery, dated November 8, 1954, WILLIAM MARVEL, Vice-Chancellor, denied defendant's motion to dismiss and denied plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction.

ITEM 29. A letter dated April 17, 1955 to FRANK O'DONNELL, JR., Deputy Attorney General, Wilmington, Delaware, from WILLIAM MARVEL, Vice-Chancellor, acknowledging a request of the State of Delaware made May 16, 1955 for a further continuance in this case. MARVEL states that unless the corporate defendant objects on or before May 20, 1955, such a continuance will be granted.

V. INFORMATION CONCERNING BRYANT W. BOWLES

A. RESIDENCE

The Baltimore Evening Sun, Baltimore, Maryland, January 13, 1955, contains an article which is quoted in part as follows:

"BRYANT W. BOWLES, president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, is moving his residence from Alexandria, Va., to Milford.

"BOWLES said last night he is doing so for the purpose of spearheading a drive by local segregationists to prevent any further racial integration in Delaware schools."

B. FORMATION OF THIRD POLITICAL PARTY

The Delaware State News dated April 22, 1955, Dover, Delaware, contains an article "BRYANT BOWLES to form third political party". This article is quoted in part as follows:

"BRYANT W. BOWLES, President of the NAAWP, today said he will form a third political party in Delaware. . . .

"Here's the prepared statement released this morning by BOWLES from his Houston home:

"'After careful consideration and rational appraisal of facts, I have arrived at the conclusion the state of Delaware is in dire need of a third political party.

"'I also believe the time is now, due to the fact certain elements of the now existing parties have set out to destroy everything the white citizens of Delaware stand for.

"'A large percentage of the candidates of both parties are produced from the same grab bag and are being ruled from behind the scenes by an invisible clique of unscrupulous haters of the white race.

"'There are quite a few good right-winged politicians in both parties which gag at the platform of their own parties and some of them have pledged their support of this proposed party.

"'I believe many more will follow.

"'Some of the principles for which this proposed conservative party will stand for are as follows:

BA 100-17756

"1. Oust all internationalists from the shores of America.

"2. Return to the Jeffersonian principles of government.

"3. Accept the constitution of the United States as the written word by our forefathers and not what some politicians are paid to say it is.

"4. Return of public schools to the public who built and paid for them.

"5. State's rights.

"6. Fight to keep our United States of America from becoming a large state in a super One World government.

"7. Break up monopolies now being held by certain people in various state agencies.

"Now is the time and Delaware is the place. We shall proceed with our plans without delay. . . ."

The article listed HARRY J. BRYANT, 500 West 24th Street, Charlotte, as one of the Charlotte organizers of the NAAWP. The article reflected, according to Mr. BRYANT, the local organization was conceived by a group of Charlotte people who got together recently and "started thinking about it" and "we got together and then decided to ask Mr. BOWLES to come down here".

An article in the Charlotte News, a daily Charlotte newspaper, dated June 24, 1955, captioned "Bowles Finally Arrives in City" reflected BRYANT BOWLES arrived in Charlotte on the afternoon of June 24, 1955. The Bureau's attention is called to the contents of a news account from Manning, S. C., as set out in the COLUMBIA STATE on 8/28/55, a daily newspaper in South Carolina, reflecting statements made by BOWLES at the KKK meeting in Manning on 8/27/55. This item being set out.

"1,000 ATTEND KLAN RALLY"

"Manning, Aug. 27 (Special)--

"Bowles was the speaker at an orderly Ku Klux Klan rally in a field near here.

"Four people were in white robes. They refused to give their names.

"Bowles was not in costume.

"A red cross about 36 inches high was lighted by light bulbs and at the right hand side was a cross about 12 x 12 feet, which was lit.

"Bowles, after a prayer, was introduced by a robed man.

"The Imperial Wizard, E. L. Daniels of Atlanta, was not present. It was reported he was organizing a Klan unit.

"The big majority of persons present appeared to be from out of the county.

"Sheriff T. J. Jackson said there was no trouble.

"Before the meeting opened Klan officials asked for the sheriff or a deputy to come up on the platform and made an announcement that if anyone made any trouble one of the robed men would sign a warrant. Two deputies went to the platform.

"Bowles criticized Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and the Supreme Court.

"The group which rallied tonight is called the U. S. Klan, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The New organization held a meeting last week near Conway.

"Bowles attacked Mrs. Roosevelt as one of the most "unscrupulous persons" he had ever seen.

SAC, SV. (94-84)

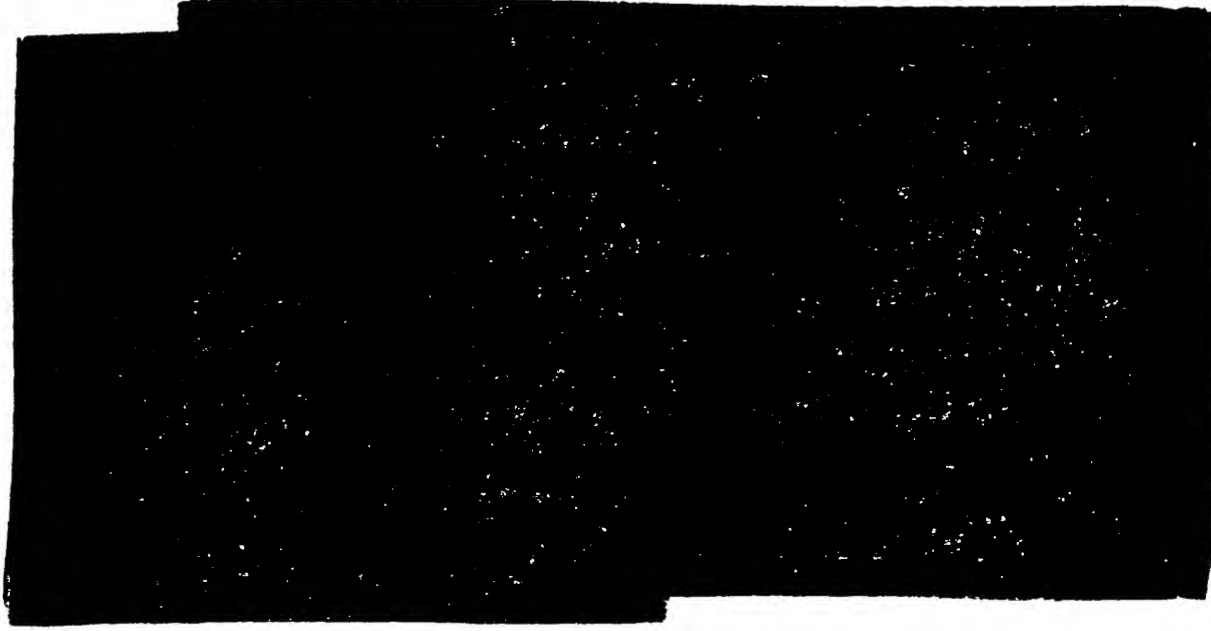

"Bowles said the Klan was necessary in Reconstruction Days and is just as necessary today. He verbally attacked the Florence Morning News and the Charlotte Observer.

"Bowles told listeners not to stand around and say "what can we do?" about the school situation but to write him a letter and he would tell them what to do.

"Bowles said he feared some parts of the country would have violence. However, he said integration would probably result in St. Petersburg and Miami because they "have Jews there."

"A robed speaker asked listeners to come to the truck--used for a platform-- to contribute money to Bowles' cause.

"Response to an invitation to join the Klan group apparently was tepid.

[REDACTED] advised that the 1955 Corporate Statement of the NAAWP is due to be filed by the Corporation Officers sometime during January, 1956, and that until that time the 1954 statement, which was filed in March, 1955, is considered in effect.

II. ACTIVITIES

A. MEETINGS

1. Delaware

July 17, 1955, Harrington, Delaware

Wilmington Morning News; Wilmington daily newspaper, issue of July 18, 1955, page 1, reported that at a meeting of the NAAWP at Harrington Airport, attended by 200 to 300 persons BRYANT W. BOWLES, President, and one of the founders of the NAAWP, resigned as President and Director of that organization charging a lack of public interest on the part of the people in Delaware of the NAAWP.

This news item further quoted BOWLES as saying "I don't feel like helping people who won't try to help themselves". BOWLES explained that there were thousands of people at his meeting when the Negro students were permitted to attend the Milford schools but once the Negroes were removed from the school people didn't bother to come to his meetings. He continued that

BA 100-17756

"If the people don't want to turn out now and keep the Negro out of the schools, I am not going to do anything for them after they get the Negro in".

^{BRYANT W.}
This article continued that BOWLES would continue to be a member of the NAAWP since he holds a life time membership in the organization. ~~WILLIAM BOWLES~~

July 23, 1955, At Home of BRYANT BOWLES, Houston, Delaware

The Delaware State News, Dover, Delaware, daily newspaper, issue of July 25, 1955, page 1, reported that at an NAAWP meeting held at the home of BRYANT BOWLES, Houston, Delaware, on July 23, 1955, the 14 man Board of Directors of the NAAWP unanimously rejected the resignation of BRYANT BOWLES as President of the NAAWP.

The Wilmington Morning News, issue of August 22, 1955, page 1, column 4, contained a news item concerning the above described meeting. This article stated that KENNETH GOFF was introduced by BRYANT BOWLES as a former Communist who was an expert on both integration and Communism.

BA 100-17756

A portion of GOFF's remarks were quoted as follows:

"Mr. GOFF said that one is part of the other, He said the Communists can be traced back to the Illuminati of eighteenth century Europe and a plan to abolish governments, churches, the home and to integrate all races. The idea was taken up by KARL MARX and communism, he said. Some of his examples:

"The 'one world' idea -- the Bible, he said, argues against integration of the races. 'Any preacher that wants to be a brother to JOE STALIN had better go to Russia...

"He said that the Communists are backing Father Divine financially and Father Divine is 'buying up the sleeping accommodations of America (mentioning hotels allegedly purchased in Philadelphia for accommodations for both white and Negro.

"He said the Communist map has already been drawn, dividing up the United States into 24 Soviet districts with the Negro Soviet Republic (which he said includes parts of Maryland and Delaware) to be headed by PAUL ROBESON.

"'Desegregation' said the speaker, 'is one of the four main methods of blasting communism into America. America is for either Christ or communism. You who stand there must decide. If we do not stand for Christ then we will go down.' "

III. PROSECUTIVE ACTION TO REVOKE NAAWP CHARTER

On September 1, 1955, [REDACTED] Court of Chancery, Kent County, Dover, Delaware, advised that no further action has been taken in that court in connection with the State of Delaware case to revoke the charter of the NAAWP since the State's Attorney General asked for a continuance of the case on May 17, 1955.

On September, 1955, Deputy Attorney General JAMES MESSICK, Kent County, Dover, Delaware, advised that the State of Delaware action to revoke the charter of the NAAWP is being handled by the Attorney General's Office in Wilmington, Delaware and that he has received no information concerning the proposed action since that office asked for a continuance of the case on May 17, 1955.

Mr. MESSICK volunteered that this action was inherited by the present administration from the former administration and in his opinion it will be dropped eventually.

B. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST BRYANT W. BOWLES

On September 1, 1955, the records of the Superior Court of Kent County, Dover, Delaware were reviewed and the following information concerning action against BRYANT W. BOWLES on two charges of violation of the school laws of the State of Delaware was obtained.

As previously reported in this investigation BOWLES was found guilty, Court of Common Pleas, Dover, Delaware, on April 6, 1955, of violation of provisions of school attendance laws and unlawfully interfering with orderly administration of the school system of the State of Delaware. Following his conviction, BOWLES appealed his case to the Superior Court of Kent County. In his appeal BOWLES requested a trial by jury which was granted.

The records further reflect that on July 25, 1955, BOWLES was arraigned on information filed by the Attorney General, State of Delaware, before County Judge P. J. RICHARDS at which time BOWLES pleaded not guilty on both charges. This record also shows that on July 25, 1955, a jury returned a verdict of not guilty against BOWLES on both charges.

C. MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES

The Delaware State News, Dover, Delaware daily newspaper, issue of September 9, 1955, contained a copy of a letter which BRYANT W. BOWLES directed to the editor of the newspaper under date of September 8, 1955. This letter is self explanatory and is quoted as follows:

BA100-17756

"Editor of the Delaware State News
Dover, Delaware

Dear Sir:

Recently numerous letters have been written against me for integration and published in your paper. I take it that your believing in freedom of the press is the reason for publishing these letters. However, let's not stop half way with your so-called 'Freedom of the press,' let's go all the way and tell these integrationists the truth.

Yesterday an article appeared in your paper concerning the case against two juveniles who attacked an eleven-year-old white girl in Cheswold. What you not tell them is that these two boys were Negroes.

Let's also tell these integrationists about the mother of this white girl going to the Negro parents of one of these boys and asking them to punish him. Let's tell them how she was called white trash and told to get out of their house and let's also tell them how she bruised and cut herself in the fall she took leaping out of the way of a carload of Negroes who tried to run her down last week.

Now let's ask these integrationists if that is the best that they have to send to the white schools, where are they sending the worst? To the New Castle County Workhouse?

Come on, let's really exercise 'Freedom of the Press'.

Sincerely,

BRYANT W. BOWLES."

On March 4, 1956, the following article appeared in the Beaumont, Texas, Enterprise, a local daily morning newspaper:

"NAAWP FOUNDER IS NAMED HERE IN SUIT
FOR $720

"Bryant ~~Bowles~~ ^{ENTERPRISE}, who made national headlines in Delaware in 1954 as leader of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, yesterday was named defendant in a court suit here for recovery of $720.

"Mr. Bowles, now a resident of Port Neches, told The Enterprise he does not owe the money claimed in the suit.

"Suit was filed against Mr. Bowles late Monday afternoon in 136th Civil District Court by T. and M. Products, Inc., and Mullens-So-Tite Corp., both of Evansville, Ind., seeking a judgment against him for $720.

"The suit involves tubeless tire repair kits, according to the petition which claims that while Mr. Bowles was living in Los Angeles, Calif., he purchased five cartons containing 10 gross of So-Tite Repair Kits from T. and M. Products and the Mullens-So-Tite Corp. Oct. 31, 1955.

"Mr. Bowles agreed to pay for the merchandise upon delivery, but upon receiving the goods, he wrote the plaintiffs requesting the goods to be released to him on open account with him to make payment within 30 days, which, the plaintiffs contend, he did not do.

"Mr. Bowles said last night he has a canceled check for $504 plus a $216 money order receipt to prove that he did pay.

"Yesterday L. R. (Speedy) Blakeman, district clerk of court, granted a writ of garnishment against Security State Bank and Trust Co., which was sought by the plaintiffs, believing the bank to be 'indebted to the defendant or that said bank has in its hands effects belonging to the defendant'.

"NAAWP was founded by Mr. Bowles in December, 1953, but did not hit the headlines until late in September 1954, when the school board in Milford, Del., decided to integrate its schools and send 11 Negroes to the tenth grade of a formerly all-white school. With Mr. Bowles as the head of the organization, the NAAWP led a boycott of the school by students and parents."

"Mr. Bowles said yesterday he still is president of the NAAWP which, while it hasn't been active lately, is incorporated in Delaware and has its funds in a Milford bank."

"Mr. Bowles is married to a former Beaumont girl Eloise Williford, and he worked in the Beaumont area about seven years ago as a 'shot man' for the Hooks Exploration Co. 100-9351 7-1

"He and his family returned here about the first of the year, and he is getting started in the manufacture of tubeless tire repair kits, he told The Enterprise. He said he is manufacturing the kits in a building near the Boggy Creek Road in Loeb north of Beaumont. Currently he is putting up a new building to improve his manufacturing facilities, he said."

On May 29, 1956, the following article appeared in the Beaumont, Texas, Enterprise:

"INJUNCTION SUIT IS WITHDRAWN

*Decision Agreed On in Patent Charge Against Bowles _ _ _

"A damage and injunction suit against Bryant W. Bowles of Port Neches, president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, was withdrawn following a hearing in 58th Civil District Court here yesterday.

"The suit was brought by Thomas W. Mullen and Mullen's So-Tite Corp., of Evansville, Ind., against Mr. Bowles and a partnership composed of Luke Collins, also of Port Neches, and Charles Hardison of Baton Rouge.

"Violation Claimed

"Mr. Mullen, head of the plaintiff company, claims the three defendants are infringing on a patent he has applied for in connection with a tubeless tire

HO 100-9351

"repair kit he invented. The defendants, he maintains, are manufacturing a similar kit called Bowles' Seal-Tite.

"Mr. Bowles, according to the petition, was once employed by the Mullen firm as a salesman in Los Angeles, Calif.

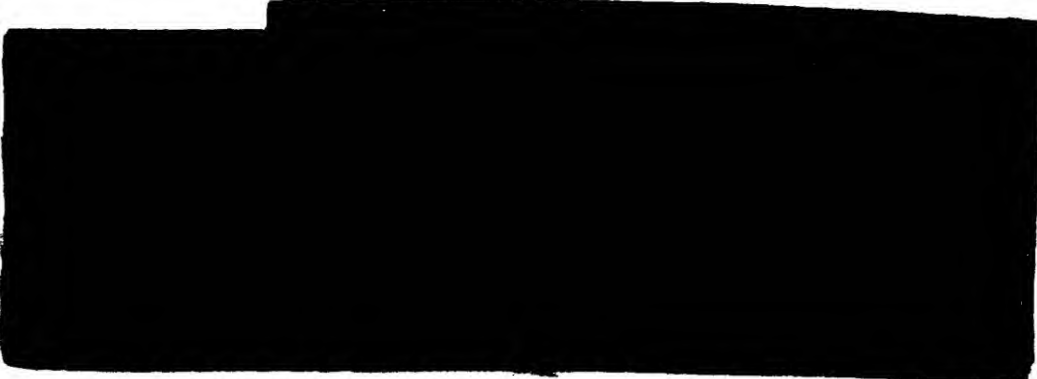

"Motion Sustained

"Judge W. S. Nichols sustained a motion by the plaintiff's attorney's for a non-suit following a hearing which was begun on a request for a temporary injunction to restrain the defendants from continuing to manufacture and sell the kits. Damages totaling $35,000 also were asked in the suit.

"Though the non-suit means, in effect, the suit has been withdrawn, court officials said, the right to refile the suit at a later date is retained by the plaintiffs.

"Mr. Bowles became the subject of nationwide headlines in 1954 when he founded the NAAWP. He was living in Delaware at the time."

On June 20, 1956, a review of records maintained in District Clerk's Office, Jefferson County, Beaumont, Texas, revealed under case numbers D-69671 and D-69905, two suits as previously described in the articles set forth above. It was noted that BOWLES was shown to be residing at 1001 Washington Street, Port Neches, Texas, and his associates, LUKE COLLINS and CHARLES HARDISON, residing at 104 Woodcrest Street, Port Neches, and 101 Convention Street, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, respectively. It was further noted that in October, 1955, BOWLES was indicated to have an account in the First National Bank and Trust Company, Milford, Delaware.

I. ACTIVITIES OF THE NAAWP

A. Status as a Corporation

The "Delaware State News," a daily newspaper published at Dover, Delaware, issue on 5/9/56, page 1, column 3, contains an article titled "NAAWP Is Still Legal Corporation", which states in part as follows:

"The National Association for the Advancement of White People, its official voice quiescent because of the absence of its founder and leader, is still a legal corporation in good standing in Delaware.

"The annual report, as required by law, was quietly filed with the Secretary of State, on March 14.

"Of mild surprise is the fact that BRYANT W. BOWLES, president, still lists Houston, Delaware, as his home town. And the official mailing address of the corporation, chartered in Delaware on Dec. 14, 1953, is P.O. Box 416, Milford.

"BOWLES, of course, has apparently not lived in Delaware for several months. He is reported to be in Texas, where court authorities have attempted to reach him regarding his libel suit against L. LEE LAYTON, Dover business man.

"In addition to BOWLES, who knew his moments of greatest gold and glory during the Milford integration dispute in the fall of 1954, the corporation lists a secretary and five directors.

"All of their terms of office will expire in September, 1956.

"E. LOIS WILLIFORD, who also gives Houston as her home address, is vice president and secretary.

BA 100-17756

"Directors include WILLIAM H. WEBB, RD 2, Box 63, Milford; and CHARLES L. BOWEN, Spring Hill, Milford; W. HARRISON MELVIN, 272 Delaware Avenue, Harrington; GRANVILLE SHOCKLEY, RD 1, Milford and William Wooters, RD 2, Box 1034, Milford. Del.

"The annual report was signed by WEBB and BOWEN as a true and correct statement according to the best of their knowledge.

"The gross assets of the corporation were not revealed, and need not be because there is no outstanding stock.

"The firm lists no principal business office outside of Delaware."

C. Civil Litigation in Delaware

The Delaware State News, issue of 5/9/56, page 1, column 3, contains an article titled "Segregationist BOWLES May Return to State", which states in part as follows:

"BRYANT W. BOWLES, fiery foe of integration, may be on his way back to Delaware.

"That's the word today from a director of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, of

BA 100-17756

"which BOWLES is president.

"The information that BOWLES may return this week was volunteered by W. HARRISON MELVIN, 272 Delaware Ave., Harrington.

"I talked to him in Texas by telephone last Sunday," MELVIN said.

"I think that he will be flying back to Delaware this week," the NAAWP director added.

"MELVIN had been called by a State News reporter who was checking the future plans of the NAAWP, which has been notably silent of late.

"We mean to keep the NAAWP active," MELVIN said.

"When queried as to why BOWLES was coming back, MELVIN cited one reason as the $260,000 libel case against L. LEE LAYTON.

"BOWLES has been given until Friday of this week to show why his attorneys should not be allowed to drop the case."

The Delaware State News, issue of 5/11/56, page 1, column 1, contains an article titled "BOWLES' Two Attorneys Granted Permission to Resign in Libel Case", which states in part as follows:

"The case of BRYANT W. BOWLES against L. LEE LAYTON, JR., for damages of $250,000 drew to a close in the Superior Court here this morning.

"Judge JAMES B. CAREY granted a motion of BOWLES' counsel MAURICE HARTNETT, III, and BOND L. HOLFORD, of Washington, D.C., to withdraw from the case. This action will leave BOWLES without representation by counsel.

"Judge CAREY also issued a rule against BOWLES to show cause why a motion for dismissal of the case should not be granted. BOWLES' deadline for answering is June 1."

BA 100-17756

The Delaware State News, issue of 6/1/56, page 1, column 5, contains an article titled "BOWLES Libel Case is Dismissed in Court", which states in part as follows:

"The $260,000 libel case brought by BRYANT W. BOWLES against L. LEE LAYTON was this morning dismissed by Judge CHARLES L. TERRY, JR., in Superior Court.

"LAYTON was sued by BOWLES on Sept. 15, 1955 for two letters to the editor of the Delaware State News, published on Oct. 1, 1954 and July 26, 1955.

"BOWLES, after his two attorneys were allowed to withdraw because he did not cooperate in the case, had been given until today to show cause why the case should not be dismissed with prejudice."

D. Speeches Made in Delaware

The Journal Every Evening, a daily newspaper published at Wilmington, Delaware, issue of 7/7/56, page 1, column 4, contains an article titled "BOWLES Back in Delaware", which states in part as follows:

"BRYANT BOWLES has returned to Delaware and will speak at two rallies in Kent County this weekend.

"The first rally, set up as a political rally for State Senator WALTER J. HOEY (D-Milford) in his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination, will be held at the Camden-Wyoming fire hall at 8 tonight.

"The other will be on ground adjoining the Standard Oil station across from the Moose Home on Route 13 north of Harrington at 3:30 PM tomorrow.

"BOWLES is reported to be spending the weekend in Harrington. He is supposed to talk on states' rights and current issues at both rallies."

The Journal Every Evening, issue of 7/9/56, page 1, column 2, contains an article titled "BOWLES Will Back GOP If HOEY is Not Nominated", which states in part as follows:

BA 100-17756

"BRYANT W. BOWLES yesterday advised his supporters to vote Republican or not at all if Senator WALTER J. HOEY of Milford doesn't get the Democratic nomination for governor.

"Returning here from his new home in Beaumont, Tex., after many months away from Delaware, the president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People spoke at meetings in Camden-Wyoming Saturday night and Harrington yesterday in support of Senator HOEY.

"His visit was a brief one. He said he planned on returning to Beaumont today. In a telephone interview after the Harrington meeting he said he had a 'tire business' in Beaumont, but would return to Delaware on 24 hours' notice 'anytime they want me'.

"In spite of his support for Senator HOEY, the Delaware state Senator was not at the Camden-Wyoming meeting, while Mr. BOWLES said he did not know whether the senator was in the audience in Harrington or not.

"Mr. BOWLES said 471 persons turned out in the rain for the Harrington meeting. Estimates varied for the Camden-Wyoming meeting. Camden Mayor HERBERT D. CLULEY, JR., said he was reliably informed that 40 to 50 people attended, but Mr. BOWLES said nearly 200 turned out.

"The organizer of the NAAWP said he plans to return to Delaware later this summer for three weeks to a month to 'work underground - underground, that is, to line up delegates for Senator HOEY'.

"VERNON P. HOOD of near Milford presided at the Harrington meeting. Mr. BOWLES said that Mr. HOOD is chairman 'pro tem' of the HOEY forces, while HARRISON MELVIN of Harrington will be in charge of the NAAWP program in Delaware.

"He also spoke at the Harrington meeting of the protests to the integration plan of the Milton School District."

I. INTEGRATION OF SCHOOLS, DELAWARE

"The Delaware State News, " a daily newspaper published at Dover, Delaware, issue of August 20, 1956, page 10, column 1, contains an article entitled, "Segregation to Still Prevail in Many Schools," which states in part as follows:

"The segregation situation in Kent and Sussex schools will be the same this September as when the schools were closed.

"The only exception will be in Christiana, a small elementary school in New Castle County, located south of Wilmington where plans to integrate the schools will become effective this year.

"Milton School in Sussex County, the stronghold of segregation, adopted a plan of integration and submitted it to the Federal Court but the residents in the school district expressed strong resentment, causing the members of the Board of Education to resign.

"The new members of the Board immediately selected a new attorney who filed a request with the Federal Court for the return of the plan as submitted, because they did not propose to follow it.

"Thus far there have been eight cases against school districts, many of them in Kent and Sussex Counties, filed with the Federal Court seeking to end segregation in the schools. In all cases except Christiana and Milton the Boards of Education answered the actions with statements showing that it was not feasible at this time to end segregation in their districts.

"The Dover schools, which for the past three years have been entering colored students for their higher academic school, after these students successfully pass the required examination for this course, will continue that policy again this year by admitting possibly four more colored students.

"Integration in the public schools in lower Delaware does not seem imminent in the near future under the existing conditions."

BA 100-17756

The "Journal Every Evening," a daily newspaper published at Wilmington, Delaware, issue of September 15, 1956, page 37, column 1, contains an article titled "To Be Called School Suits -- U. S. Court to Determine Status of Integration Actions in 6 Districts," which states in part as follows:

"Six integration suits in U. S. District Court here will be called Tuesday, Oct. 2, "Schools on the trial list are Christiana School District No. 44, the Milford Special School District, the Greenwood School District No. 91, Laurel Special School District, Seaford Special School District, and John M. Clayton District No. 97.

"The traditional calendar call of the court is used to determine the status of each case. Attorneys may ask for a continuance at that time or may agree on a definite date for the start of a trial.

"At least one of the cases listed on the Federal court calendar is likely to be dropped at the 10:30 a.m. calendar call on Oct. 2. That is the suit against Christiana School District No. 44, a district that is now integrated in accordance with a plan it submitted to the court.

"The actions were filed against the separate school districts, the school board members, the State Board of Education and Dr. GEORGE R. MILLER, JR., state superintendent of public instruction, by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"In each case there were answers filed separately for the state board and Dr. MILLER by Chief Deputy Atty. Gen. HERBERT L. COBIN, and for the local boards by their respective attorneys."

III. ACTIVITIES OF BRYANT W. BOWLES

The "Delaware State News," a daily newspaper published at Dover, Delaware, issue of September 11, 1956, page 1, column 1, contains an article titled "BOWLES May Assume Role of Kingmaker; Try Write-In for HOEY," which states in part as follows:

"BRYANT BOWLES is back in town to try a new role, that of king maker.

"The forceful foe of integration is staying ~~at~~ the home of Mr. and Mrs. HARRISON ~~WELVIN~~, Harrington. He is president of the National Association for the Advancement of _____ People.

"BOWLES stated:

"I came back to Delaware because we have a Governor to elect and whoever we back will be the next Governor," he proclaimed. 'I'll bet every cent I have, even mortgage my business, and give five to one odds that we will elect the Governor we want,' he said. BOWLES explained that by 'we' he meant the members of the NAAWP.

"Elaborating on his political intentions, BOWLES explained that the NAAWP rules do not allow a person to use the organization to gain political office, 'But there is no reason that we can't use it as a pressure group to off-set another pressure group,' he declared.

"BOWLES said that so far he did not know what candidate the organization would support. He is planning a meeting later this week of NAAWP executives and other interested friends to decide on what course of action the Delaware group will take in politics.

"We couldn't get HOEY (State Senator WALTER J. HOEY (D) Milford) nominated,' BOWLES said when asked about his position on the cndaidte he backed earlier, 'But I am going to study the election laws and maybe we might do something on write-ins. That is one of the things I want to look up this week. We might still back HOEY.'

BA 100-17756

"BOWLES said that a public meeting is being planned and that he would like to build a scaffold and hang Governors CLEMENT of Tennessee and CHANDLER of Kentucky in effigy. He said he spent the Labor Day weekend in Clinton, Tenn., and watched 5,000 people determined to halt integration in the schools there.

"The NAAWP president said that in addition to politics he also was back in Delaware for business reasons. He said that he had scheduled his business so that he could be here for the election campaign. At present he is setting up distributorships for his tubeless tire repair service along the East Coast and made a weekend trip to Wilmington for that purpose.

"He said he plans to remain at the MELVIN home for a few days before he decides where he will make his home. He emphasized that Delaware would not be his permanent home because he already has a home set up in Beaumont, Tex. However, he was equally emphatic that he would remain in Delaware until after 'weelect a Governor.'"

The "Delaware State News," a daily newspaper published at Dover, Delaware, issue of September 14, 1956, page 1, column 3, contains an article titled "State News Observes Third Year As Daily With Review of News," over the by-line of JIM MILLER, which states in part as follows:

"Integration, or segregation a headline item in Delaware since May 17, 1954, received less attention. Moderation by the rabid integrationists, and watchful waiting by the pro-segregationists, seems now to be the order of the day.

"The past 2 months saw a fading in popularity of BRYANT W. BOWLES, president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, and most ardent spokesman for the segregationist.

"BOWLES, who quietly folded his tent and stole away to Texas, returned on July 6 for one weekend stand, but failed to draw more than a handful of the curious at either Camden-Wyoming or Harrington.

BA 100-17756

"He returned again this week, hopeful of becoming a king-maker by electing a governor, one not nominated by either Democrats or Republicans. He said he will stay through Election Day.

"Earlier, BOWLES suffered inglorious defeat in his libel law suit for $260,000 against L. LEE LAYTON, which he re-entered on Sept. 61, two days after the New Year started at the Delaware STATE NEWS.

"The suit was based on letters written to the editor of the DSN on Oct. 1, 1954, and on July 26, 1955. But the case was dismissed on June 1, as BOWLES failed to put in an appearance. There wasn't a single spectator in the court as the judge kicked out the case 'with prejudice.'"

The "Delaware State News," a daily newspaper published at Dover, Delaware, issue of September 14, 1956, page 1, column 6, contains an article titled "BOWLES Claims Insult From Segregationists in Easton, Maryland," which states in part as follows:

"EASTON, Md. (AP) - The Talbot White Citizens Committee, newly organized to try to retain segregation in the public schools, 'insulted' the founder of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People last night.

"BRYANT BOWLES came to the meeting of the committee, attended by about 400, planning to speak. But the meeting adjourned without so much as an acknowledgement of his presence.

"I cancelled two very important business meetings to come here," BOWLES said. 'I don't charge to speak, but when I'm invited to speak and don't, I'm highly insulted.'

"BOWLES formerly lived at Milford, Del., but now is from Beaumont, Tex.

"THOMAS MOORE, Easton electrician who presided, said he was not told that BOWLES was supposed to speak.

BA 100-17756

"I don't know the man and didn't even know he was here," MOORE said.

"I don't want outside help. This is our fight."

The "Wilmington Morning News," a daily newspaper published at Wilmington, Delaware, issue of September 28, 1956, page 9, column 5, contains an article titled "BRYANT BOWLES Quits As NAAWP President," which states as follows:

"BRYANT BOWLES announced last night he has resigned as president of the National Association for the Advancement of the White People to keep that organization out of politics while he takes sides in the current campaign.

"At the end of next week, Mr. BOWLES said, he will announce which candidate he will support. Meanwhile, he is working to get independent voters to register, he explained.

"Mr. BOWLES said he plans to remain in Delaware until after the election, and that he and his family are living temporarily in an apartment in Greenwood."

SUBJECT: NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT

RACIAL MATTERS

Re Bureau airtel to Baltimore dated 7/14/64.

[REDACTED] b7D

The "Times Crescent", a weekly newspaper published at La Plata, Maryland, in the August 15, 1963 edition contained a story reflecting that 17 Charles Countians gathered in the Court House on the previous Monday night in answer to a letter written to preserve the rights of the Caucasian race. The letter, signed by a "Charles County citizen", scheduled a meeting for 8:00 pm; but when 15 men and 2 women arrived, they had no one there to lead the meeting. Without electing a temporary chairman, the group laid down 5 aims for the "betterment of white people" and voted unanimously to contact the NAAWP. The story reflected that after the meeting WILLIAM D. KILLEN of Potomac Heights, Maryland said he had been approached by a group of citizens to organize a chapter of the NAAWP. He said that the formation of an NAAWP would probably be the first in Maryland. At the meeting, eleven of the seventeen persons present signed their names as attending. CHARLES H. POSEY, SR., of Indianhead, Maryland, said that he had applied to the national organization for membership.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WHITE PEOPLE

07110

According to an article on page A9 of "The Cleveland Press", a local daily newspaper, on November 9, 1964, JOHN BARBIC, President of the Northeast National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP), denied printed notices which he attributes to former NAAWP members who have formed a new citizens group called United Citizens Viewpoint, that the NAAWP is out of business here. He said 10 of the 22 board members resigned because of a policy rift, centered on the NAAWP name which many feel is too closely associated with the NAACP and would jeopardize their jobs. According to BARBIC, fate of the 11 local chapters depends on the outcome of a rift in the National NAAWP ranks in Cincinnati, but BARBIC said he thinks the Cleveland chapters would continue if Cincinnati disbands.

On November 20, 1964, [REDACTED] Ohio Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, Ohio, advised that the United Citizens Viewpoint, Inc., and White Citizens Council of Ohio, are presently incorporated with the office of TED BROWN, Ohio Secretary of State.

The United Citizens Viewpoint, Inc., was incorporated October 19, 1964, and bears Ohio incorporation number 334445. The articles of incorporation were filed by JOSEPH W. GATZ, 5925 Ridge Road, Parma, Ohio.

Three persons were named as trustees of the corporation:

at Cleveland under caption of the NAAWP and report of SA [redacted] dated 10/28/66, at Cleveland under caption of the NCCS.

Investigation of captioned organizations was initiated with the fundamental objective of identifying these organizations and to determine if they have adopted a policy of advocating, condoning or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution or have actually committed such acts of violence.

By way of background, past investigation revealed that the NAAWP is in favor of segregation; strongly opposed to forced integration and civil rights legislation and is anti-Communist. However, the NAACP has never advocated violence in achieving its aims.

[REDACTED]

Extensive investigation conducted into the operations of captioned organizations reveal no one instance of actual violence or a policy of advocating, condoning or inciting the use of violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution. The activities of these organizations has been limited to peaceful picketing, propaganda towards upholding segregation and more recently the support of former Alabama Governor GEORGE C. WALLACE as a Presidential candidate. Investigation in the direction of violence naturally revolved around the circumstances of [REDACTED] fires, keeping in mind the possibility that they could have been secretly the result of the work of [REDACTED] the NAAWP or NCCS. However, it has now been conclusively established that [REDACTED] had no connection whatsoever with these fires and consequently, this aspect of possible violence attributable to these organizations, was eliminated.

Based on investigation to date, it would appear that the NAAWP and its related groups are the counterparts of the NAACP. Accordingly cases on the captioned organizations are being closed as they do not fall within the Bureau's criteria set out in the FBI Handbook, Page 153 b, Item C 1 a through c. In order to insure that there will be no justifiable basis for any charge that investigation of captioned organizations infringe upon Constitutional freedoms of speech, press or assembly, the activities of captioned organizations will henceforth be followed through public source material and established sources. Investigation will be re-initiated upon receipt of information which brings these organizations within the Bureau's investigative criteria and at the same time, the Bureau will be advised.

b7C [A review of the files of the FBI reveals no reference to [REDACTED] The National Association for the Advancement of White People, [REDACTED] may be related to several groups bearing the same name which were organized in the Midwestern United States in 1963. There is no indication in our files that any of the groups bearing this name engaged in acts of violence, but were sometimes associated with more extreme groups such as the Minutemen or Ku Klux Klan. There exists no reference indicating any of these groups are still in existence; however, the current restrictions imposed on the FBI by the Attorney General Guidelines for the conduct of Domestic Security investigations, of these groups would meet the criteria for investigation unless they were to engage in violence and/or violation of law. b7D
